Course Description:
This course surveys United States history from the end of Reconstruction to the present. Our focus will be economic and social development, political conflict, and the cultural responses of Americans to the enormous changes over the past 130 years.

Major topics and themes in U.S. history from 1876 to the present include political development, social change, women's history, race and ethnicity.

Prerequisite:
Developmental Reading 0093 or English as a Second Language (ESOL) 0044 or have met the Texas Success Initiative (TSI) standard in Reading.

Required Texts:
• Transforming America (DVD); this DVD set is available at the Mountain View College Library. It DOES NOT need to be purchased. You should go check out a copy as soon as possible.

Intellectual Competencies:

• Reading – to improve and expand reading comprehension
• Writing – learn to write both in essay and spontaneous formats
• Critical thinking – develop skills of comparing, contrasting, analyzing and combining information to reach reasonable conclusions
• Listening – learn to hear and remember information presented to the class, and be able to respond verbally to questions

Exemplary Educational Objectives:

• To examine social institutions and processes across a range of historical periods, social structures and cultures
• To develop and communicate alternative explanations or solutions for contemporary issues
• To understand the evaluation and current role of the U.S. in the world
• To differentiate and analyze historical evidence (documentary and statistical) and differing points of view
• To recognize and apply reasonable criteria for the acceptability of evidence and social research
• To identify and understand differences and commonalities within diverse cultures

Course Objectives:

This class is designed as a lecture, reading, and discussion course.

Students will be asked to express and examine their views on course issues and materials through discussion and in writing. Students will have opportunities to expand their knowledge, improve their critical thinking skills and strengthen their writing abilities as well as learn to integrate materials across the expanse of modern United States history.

NOTE: Attendance will be taken at every class meeting. Attendance and discussion participation are crucial to doing well in every aspect of the class. Your attention to lecture materials and assigned readings is essential to your performance on your papers, midterm and final exam. You will be asked to make connections between the readings and lecture materials. The incorporation of outside materials (i.e. Wikipedia, Sparknotes, etc.) is strictly prohibited.
Student Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of History 1302 students should be able to:

1. Analyze and explain the economic developments which led to the transformation of the United States from an agrarian to an industrial and post-industrial urban society.

2. Describe and assess the expansion of the government and the ramifications that expansion had on the political, social, and economic lives of the American people.

3. Identify and explain the developments that led to America’s becoming a world power from 1898 to the present.

4. Recognize and evaluate the pursuit of equality and freedom by various minority groups within American society since 1877.

5. Apply historical perspective to contemporary issues in the United States.

Evaluation Procedures:

1. Participation (15 points) is an important part of this course. Each week students will be asked to participate in one (1) discussion forum. There are a total of five (5) forums for the semester. These forums will pose a question and ask students to weigh in on it. The question will involve a topic under examination for that week. Students are to respond in detail to the question but it is also important to engage classmates’ opinions, observations, and/or perspectives in these discussions. A detailed overview of each forum can be found in the DISCUSSION section of eCampus.

   Participation in these forums is MANDATORY. If students do not respond to the discussion questions by the specified due date, their grade will suffer as a consequence. Also the content and quality of students’ participation will be taken into account. Generally speaking, discussion posts that fully engage the central question and respond to classmates/professor’s perspectives will receive full credit for this portion of the course.
2. Quizzes (15 Points; 3 points each) – There will be five quizzes that will be assigned throughout the course of the semester. These quizzes will ask you to address a specific issue within the assigned readings. The point of these quizzes is to ensure that students engage the readings and connect the themes and insights to the general historical narrative. These quizzes are open-book and you may work on them in groups if you wish. If you choose to work in a group, however, you MAY NOT turn in word-for-word replicas. In other words, each student should have a relatively unique response to the questions posed in the quizzes. Please note well: late quizzes will NOT be accepted. If you fail to submit the quiz by the specified due date, it will result in a zero.

3. Papers (20 points; 10 points each) – You will be asked to write two short papers, each approximately 2-3 pages in length and valued each at 10% of your overall grade. These papers will ask you to put an assigned novel into “conversation” with the rest of the course materials – assigned readings out of DTA as well as lecture materials. These papers are to be no shorter than two full pages and no longer than three.

All papers must be typed, in 12-point Times New Roman font, with one inch margins on all sides. For each day a paper is late 2.5 points will be deducted from the final grade.

The theme around which these papers will be organized will be distributed at a later date, approximately one week prior to when the papers are due.

4. Midterm (25 points) – There will be one midterm in this course. It will consist of multiple-choice questions, short answer questions, and a detailed essay question. Students will be given a study guide one week prior to the exam. Make-up exams must be arranged with the professor AHEAD of time. Failure to communicate a need to make-up an exam BEFORE the scheduled date of the exam will result in a zero.

6. Final Exam (25 points) – The final exam format will be similar to the midterm. It will cover the second half of the course with one exception. One of the essay questions will demand that you draw together major themes over the entire course. In other words, the essay is cumulative. Students will be given a study guide one week prior to the exam. Make-up exams must be arranged with the professor AHEAD of time. Failure to communicate a need to make-up an exam BEFORE the scheduled date of the exam will result in a zero.

Grading Scale:

Late Work Policy:

- Late quizzes will NOT be accepted
• For every day an assigned PAPER is late, 2.5 points will be deducted from the final score

Make-up Exam Policy: if you have a conflict with a scheduled exam, it is your responsibility to arrange a time to make it up. Typically an exam will be left for you at the Testing Center and you will have a specified timeframe to complete it.

Withdrawal Policy:

If you are unable to complete this course, it is your responsibility to withdraw formally. The withdrawal request must be received by the Registrar’s Office by Aug. 2, 2012. Failure to do so will result in your receiving a performance grade, usually an “F”.

Stop Before You Drop:

For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the Fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career, unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W.” Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas Public Institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access: https://www1.dcccd.edu/6drop

Repeating This Course:

Effective for Spring 2011, the Dallas County Community Colleges will charge additional tuition to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. This class may not be repeated fore the third or subsequent time without paying the additional tuition. Third attempts include courses taken at any of the DCCCD colleges since the Fall 2002 semester.

Financial Aid:

Students must begin attendance in all classes of enrollment. No exceptions. Financial Aid will not be granted to students who have been certified as not attending by the certification date. For this lecture class, your physical participation in class, on or before the certification date, will allow you to receive credit for FA purposes. For certification dates, check with the division or FAO for further information. Students, who are not certified as beginning class, are responsible for any payments due as a result of non-certification, to include the dropping of courses. Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate after the drop date are also subject to this policy.

If you are receiving financial aid grants or loans, you must begin attendance in all classes. Do not drop or stop attending any class without consulting the Financial Aid Office. Changes in your enrollment level and failing grades may require that you repay financial aid funds.
The Texas Success Initiative (TSI):

The Texas Success Initiative (TSI) is a statewide program designed to ensure that students enrolled in Texas public colleges and universities have the basic academic skills needed to be successful in college-level course work. The TSI requires assessment, remediation (if necessary), and advising of students who attend a public college or university in the state of Texas. The program assesses a student's basic academic skills in reading, writing, and math. Passing the assessment is a prerequisite for enrollment in many college level classes. Students who do not meet assessment standards may complete prerequisite requirements by taking developmental courses in the deficient area and passing them with a grade of C or higher. Additional information is available at https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0506/admiss/tsi_requirements.cfm.

Academic Honesty:

Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. Those who engage in the aforementioned infractions will fail the assignment and/or course. Their names will also be reported to the President’s office. As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct published in the DCCCD Catalog. http://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0506/ss/code.cfm

ADA Statement: If you are a student with a disability and/or special needs who requires ADA accommodations, please contact Mountain View College Disability Services Office.
