Institutional Policies: General institutional policies
Course related policies: Course-related institutional policies
Department policies:

1. Attendance Policy: Regular attendance is imperative because this course involves a good deal more than simply reading a text; further, you cannot receive credit for a class you have not regularly attended. Not being in class, regardless of the reason, is an absence. Those who miss too many classes (more than 6 in fall/spring, more than 2 in summer) and do not drop the course will receive an “F” or “N” for the course. If you come to class completely unprepared for the class activity that day, such as not having a rough draft on a peer edit day, you will be counted absent.

2. Academic honesty: Papers should reflect YOUR knowledge and understanding. Don't let others do your thinking and writing for you. Information that is copied, quoted in part, paraphrased, or summarized without credit to the author is plagiarism. Instances of plagiarism have dire consequences: F on the paper, F in the class, and/or expulsion from school. Review specific Academic Honesty Statement posted on e-Campus.

3. Cell phones: Your cell phone must be turned off during class and put in your bag, not on your desk. Put your bags and purses on the floor and leave them there. If you expect several family emergencies, then you should give the campus police phone number to your family, and campus police can come get you in case of true emergency. This shows respect for the learning environment and helps you build professional habits.
