Video Series:

Video Series: Transforming America

Videos are an integral part of this course and must be watched carefully if you are going to maximize your learning experience and do well on your exams. Students may access the video programs broken into “Lessons” through the eCampus course site for free. Simply click on the “Video Lessons” button on the course menu and follow the posted directions. Please contact Technical Support if you are having difficulty accessing or viewing the videos.

Videos are also available free of charge to all students enrolled in the course in the campus library. These videos must be picked up in person with a valid photo or campus ID, and promptly returned at the end of the semester.

Students can also purchase the videos on DVD, VHS, or Video CD-ROM from the campus bookstore. You can also call 1-800-325-3252 to purchase.

Course Work:

All course work is due on the specified deadline. Check the course calendar for due dates.

Online Class Introduction (10 points)

Once you have read through the Orientation, read the forum guideline and then you are required to introduce yourself to the class by posting an introduction on the Student Discussion Board before midnight on Wednesday, November 18th. By posting you are “attending” my course and will be certified as present once you complete your post. If you do not post by the deadline, you will not get certified on certification day (Thursday, November 19th) which could affect you obtaining your financial aid.
Online Class Discussions (30 points each)
Students are required to participate in 4 online discussions which will be posted under the Student Discussion Board Tab located on the course menu. Each of these discussions will focus on a specific topic from each of the units. I will post a discussion forum prompt and each student is required to respond to the prompt. The class discussions are mandatory and failure to complete the entire discussion assignment will result in a zero for the assignment.

Each discussion assignment is worth 30 points. Your posting should be 400-500 words and must be written clearly and effectively answer or address the question posed. Grammar and spelling are important and will be considered as a portion of each discussion grade.

Exams (100 points each):
Four exams, one on each unit, will be given during the semester. All four exams are located in the Exams section of the course menu. Check the course calendar for due dates. Each exam will cover the assigned readings and the video programs. Each of the four exams is composed of 50 multiple-choice questions worth 2 points each. You will have two opportunities to take the exam, and your highest score will be recorded. Once you begin the exam, you must finish within the 3-hour time limit. You are not able to start the exam and then go back and finish at another time. Since you have two opportunities to take the exam, there WILL BE NO RESETS.

Primary Document Analysis Paper (40 points)
You are required to submit one analysis paper to a primary document found in the Reading the American Past: Selected Historical Documents book. Further details regarding this assignment and its requirements are posted in the course on Blackboard and are dictated by the Brookhaven College History Department. The Primary Document Analysis Paper is due before midnight on Wednesday, December 16th.

Extra Credit (40 points)
You may earn a maximum of 40 extra credit points by completing a variety of the extra credit opportunities that are located in the Extra Credit section of the course menu. Extra credit is optional; however, I highly recommend that you take advantage of these extra points. These points could mean the difference in a letter grade.

Course Work and Grading Policy:
All grades will be posted on the course website in the My Grades section located on the course menu. Final Grade: Final grades are based on the total number of points accumulated from the course work on a 600-point scale.

Please familiarize yourself with all of the due dates. This course DOES NOT ACCEPT LATE WORK and DOES NOT OFFER MAKE-UP EXAMS.

4. Complete the Primary Source Analysis Activity (only for Units 1 and 3)
5. Take the exam.

Communication with Your Instructor:
Your professor is here to help you! However, since we do not meet in regular class sessions, you may have to initiate contact via email and/or telephone. Please contact your instructor when you have any questions. I generally respond to emails within 24 hours. If you have not heard back from me in 24 hours, do not hesitate to contact me again. Be aware that while this is my general and intended practice, it is subject to the changes and chances of life.

All matters of academic dishonesty (plagiarism, collusion, fabrication, cheating, etc.) will result in a failing grade for the assignment in question. All assignments, exams, and extra credit for this course should be done individually and by the person enrolled in the course. Group work is not accepted and will be given a failing grade.
