Financial Aid Statement
Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate after the drop date are also subject to this policy.

Financial Aid Statement for Distance Learning Classes

If you are receiving Financial Aid grants or loans and are enrolled in a Distance Learning class, you must show participation in this class prior to the certification date by either e-mailing or contacting the instructor or logging on to eCampus by February 2 (M)12th Class Day. Do not drop or stop attending any class without consulting the Financial Aid Office. Changes in your enrollment level and failing grades may require that you repay financial aid funds.

Repeating This Course: (Third Attempt to Enroll in a Course)

Effective for Fall Semester 2005, the Dallas County Community Colleges will charge additional tuition to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. All third and subsequent attempts of the majority of credit and Continuing Education/Workforce Training courses will result in additional tuition to be charged. Developmental Studies and some other courses will not be charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any of the Dallas County Community Colleges since the Fall 2002 Semester. See Third Attempt to Enroll in a Course at: http://www.dcccd.edu/thirdcourseattempt/

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT COMPLIANCE

If you are a student with a disability and/or special needs who requires ADA accommodations, please contact your college Disability Services Office.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

The purpose of the Student Code of Conduct is to provide guidelines for the educational environment of The Dallas County Community College District. Such an environment presupposes both rights and responsibilities. Disciplinary regulations at the college are set forth in writing in order to give students general notice of prohibited conduct. Students should be aware of disciplinary actions for all forms of academic dishonesty, including cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, plagiarism, and collusion. Your College Catalog and the DCCCD Catalog contain the entire Student Code of Conduct, which is also available on the Internet at http://www.dcccd.edu.

ATTENDANCE: Online Students: You may login based on your own schedule, but are you required to meet deadlines. ATTENDANCE: ATTENDANCE WILL BE TAKEN ON LINE VIA EMAIL. In addition, attendance will be noted at times during the course: exams, postings of the discussion board, etc. Online students will be required to respond to online instructor's emails in order to get attendance credit. Under certain conditions (such as prolonged illness), a student may be provided an opportunity to make up missed work. Note: insufficient attendance will result in failure of the course. Actively talking part in class discussions on the Discussion Board, taking your scheduled tests and submitting your assignments will be consider in the attendance policy.
DROP POLICY
IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DROP A COURSE OR WITHDRAW FROM THE COLLEGE: FAILURE TO DO SO WILL RESULT IN RECEIVING A PERFORMANCE GRADE, USUALLY A GRADE OF "F"; PLEASE CONSULT THE CURRENT COURSE SCHEDULE FOR THE DROP DATE. The last day to officially withdraw to qualify for a grade of W is by April 16 (R). You may repeat this course only once after receiving a grade, including W.

ACADEMIC ETHICS:
The College may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty.

Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, statements, acts, or omissions related to applications for enrollment or the award of a degree and/or the submission as one's own work material that is not one's own. Scholastic dishonesty may involve, but is not limited to, one or more of the following acts: cheating, plagiarism, collusion, use of annotated texts or teacher’s editions, and/or falsifying academic records.

Plagiarism is the use of an author's words or ideas as if they were one's own without giving credit to the source, including, but not limited to, failure to acknowledge a direct quotation. Cheating is the willful giving or receiving of information in an unauthorized manner during an examination, illicitly obtaining examination questions in advance, copying computer or Internet files, using someone else's work for assignments as if it were one's own, or any other dishonest means of attempting to fulfill the requirements of a course.

Collusion is intentionally aiding or attempting to aid another in an act of scholastic dishonesty, including but not limited to providing a paper or project to another student, providing an inappropriate level of assistance; communicating answers to a classmate during an examination; removing tests or answer sheets from a test site, and allowing a classmate to copy answers.
DUE DATES FOR DISCUSSIONS, ASSIGNMENTS, TESTS AND EXTRA CREDIT

Please note for the discussion portion of this class you have the opportunity to post up to 4 times and earn the full points. A one line post or one line reply without substance will earn you 0 points. If you find yourself without ideas read what your class mates have said. Do you agree with them? Do you disagree with them? Please explain your stand use examples from your book, other readings or life experiences. If you would like to initiate a topic related to the topic at hand go ahead but please make sure it is relevant and you are adding to the information pool. Most of all I encourage you to do your reading and come with supporting ideas from your book or assigned articles.
