Credit hours: 3
Class meeting time: 9:30 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.
Course description: This course will focus on sculpture or three-dimensional design projects in a special topics area. Emphasis is on individual expression and artistic exploration. This course may be repeated if topics and learning outcomes vary. (2 Lec., 4 Lab.)
Course prerequisites: No prerequisites or co-requisites required for this course.

Required or Recommended Textbooks and Materials
There is no required textbook for this class. See appendix A "Supplies & Materials"

Course Objectives
This course will focus on the student further exploring the bodies of work he or she has begun in a previous class. The student should keep in mind materials & techniques and applications of design principles related to the three dimensional form. Students will use materials of their own choosing. Project work and critiques will involve consideration of the elements of design: line, texture, color, space, shape, volume and plane) and the principles of design: repetition, variety, balance, and unity. The importance of content and idea within the work will also be stressed. Students will also be introduced to important artists and influences that have affected the three-dimensional form.
Students in this class will also be exposed to a brief history of sculpture and to the current condition of the 3D Arts by way of slide or PowerPoint presentations, lectures, field trips, and class discussions. Advanced Sculpture student’s consistent creative involvement and attention to craftsmanship are important in the evaluation of your projects. Sustained effort in problem solving and creative solutions are always evident in finished work and will ultimately effect how they are graded.
Students in Advanced Sculpture will be required to make an oral presentation to the class regarding an artist’s body of work or an art movement or style.
Each student must participate in class. This includes critiques, discussions, group work, and clean-up.
Students must demonstrate an understanding and ability (skill) of working with each assigned media. Students must also demonstrate an understanding of the principles and elements of design as applied to Sculpture.
Exams and Assignments
Students will complete at least 8 major projects. Each project or a combination of projects will have a predetermined due date. On that due date completed work will be evaluated (critiqued) by the instructor and the class, in the form of an oral group critique.

Grading Scale
Grading the student’s work is based on several things, the most important of which is craft, or craftsmanship. Craftsmanship means the care with which an object is constructed and finished. Craft is stressed in this class because the student is learning basic skills, the foundation of any artistic endeavor. Another important consideration is composition. Composition means the overall impression given by the way the various elements work together, such as: how decoration works with the form, the proportion of the shapes to one another, or the appropriateness of a given color scheme or texture to the piece. Other important criteria include: creativity, risk-taking (the degree of difficulty you chose), finished quality, and faithfulness to the statement of intent.

Each of the major projects will be graded on the following criteria:

- Craftsmanship: 40%
- Design: 40%
- Creativity: 10%
- Risk taking: 10%
- Effort: In an advanced class, effort should not be a factor, although lack of effort will be calculated negatively.

Overall Semester Grade Criteria:
- Project Work: 80%
- Field trip museum visit: 5%
- Oral presentation: 10%
- Attendance participation: 5%

Extra credit may be obtained by visiting an art gallery on your own (visiting the North Lake Gallery will not count toward extra credit). Bring a flyer or brochure from the exhibit accompanying a one-page paper (at a minimum) explaining the show, what piece moved you and why, and/or what piece did you not like and why. Include a sketch of the piece on a second page. (10 point type, Times New Roman, no bold type, single spaced, 1” top, side margins.)

Classroom Rules / Regulations / Discipline / Policies
1. ATTENDANCE and PUNCTUALITY:
   - Attendance is mandatory! There is no textbook required for this class. All of the information about Sculpture and 3D Design will be presented during class time in the form of: lectures, PowerPoint presentations, book reviews, and demonstrations. Lectures and demonstrations usually begin at the start of class and will not be repeated, so if you are late, or miss a class lecture, you must get the information from classmates. Any emergency situation should always be discussed with your instructor.
   - Each class day will be worth 3.7 points for attendance. Attendance will be 10% of your final grade. Perfect attendance will result in extra credit. Excessive or habitual tardiness or “sneaking-out early” will not be counted as a “present” and will not earn 3.7 points. Excessive absences will result in a failing grade!

2. EXAMS & ASSIGNMENTS:
   - There are no scheduled exams in this class. At the completion of each project the entire class will participate in a class critique (see “Means of Assessment of Course Learning Outcomes & Evaluation Procedures”). Each person is expected to give some input or feedback. Every student is expected to attend critiques. Missing a critique will lower your project grade by one letter grade.
3. LATE PROJECTS:

   All projects must be turned in and on time, to receive credit for this class. Any projects that are turned in late, will have 10 points taken off of the grade, for each class meeting that it is late, after the due date. All projects must be completed and turned in to receive credit for the project. You must attend the critique on the scheduled day even if your project is not complete. Late projects will not be given a class critique or written review.

4. CLASSROOM CLEAN-UP RESPONSIBILITIES OF STUDENTS:

   This classroom is shared with several other classes. Cleanliness of your work space is very important! You may make as much of a mess during class as you need to get your work done, but your work area must be cleaned-up at the end of class. Repeated failure to clean up after yourself will result in a lowering of your final grade.

   ! ! ! Near the end of the semester we will have a “clean the lab day.” !! Failure to show-up, or participate in “clean the lab day” will result in the loss of (two) 2 letter grades from your final average!!

5. CELL PHONES IN THE CLASSROOM

   Talking on your cell phones in class is not permitted in this classroom. Any student talking on a cell phone in class will be asked to leave and will be counted absent. If you have an emergency and need to use your cell phone, please alert the teacher in advance, set your cell phone to vibrate and leave the room to carry on a conversation. Text messaging is also not allowed during class. PLEASE SILENCE YOUR RINGTONES!

6. ABOUT CLOTHING IN THE J211 CLASSROOM:

   This is a messy class and a somewhat dirty room. Please wear appropriate clothing to class. Black and white are the worst colors to wear. Iron stains white clothes, and every dot of clay and plaster dust shows up on black clothes. So wear old clothes that are expendable! It would be best to remove your jewelry at the beginning of class, especially rings and long necklaces. Store your jewelry in your purse or backpack. (earrings are ok). Please don’t put your jewelry on the table, they disappear, are orphaned, or worse; show up in the reclaim clay!

   Long fingernails “should” be trimmed. This class will do terrible things to your manicure. Long hair should be kept away from all of the equipment and machines. Bring a hat or a hair tie for long hair. Bare feet and/or sandals are discouraged in the lab. There are too many things to hurt bare feet. Always be aware of your safety and the safety of others, around any of the equipment!

7. EXTRAS:

   To excel in this class students must perform work outside of the scheduled class time. Student may take work home and or utilize the open lab times to work on their projects.

   No Grade of Incomplete will be given for this class. Your final grade will be a combination of the above criteria, effort, skill, quality of your finished work, attendance, and class participation.

   Near the end of the semester we will have a “clean the lab day.” Failure to show-up, or participate in “clean the lab day” will result in the loss of (two) 2 letter grades from your final average!(see #3 above)

   The final exam day will be our final critique (no written exam). We will have a pot luck brunch during final critique. All students will be require to attend final critique (on time!) and will be require to present the require work assignments (completed).

For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a "W." Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access: https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops

Trinity Moist Clays
Terra Cotta - Trinity's Terra Cotta body is suitable for sculpting or throwing. Ideal where thick cross sections are required. The basic clay for this body is a red -burning, native Texas clay that fires from cone 04- cone 1. Bisque firing should be from cone 06-04. Color is controlled by temperature, becoming darker at higher temperatures. Contains 8% grog. Cone 6 Stoneware - This body is blended to give warmer colors in electric or gas kilns. Ideal firing temperature range is from cone 4 - 7, bisque between cone 06 -04. throws and hand builds well. Grog 5% Red Stoneware - A throwing and hand building body that matures from cone 7 to cone 10. In electric kilns (oxidation) this body fires a light buff color. Depending upon amount of reduction in gas kilns the color varies from light tan to a warm toast color. Smooth enough for dinnerware contains only 5% grog. White Stoneware - A white firing stoneware good for throwing and hand building. This body was developed for salt glazing but it is excellent for the raku because it contains more grog than most regular stoneware bodies. Also available without grog. Fires cone 6 to cone 10. White Modeling Clay - A clay plastic enough to model delicate features, yet strong enough to hold almost any shape. Fires brilliant white from cone 06 - cone 1. Porcelain - A warm, off -white, non translucent domestic porcelain. matures between cone 8 - cone 11. may be thrown or hand built with good results. Fine grained. Bisque between cone 06 - 04. Excellent for salt firing.
