VII. SPECIFIC COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Economics as a field of study seeks to explore a series of ongoing issues and problems, which confront all of us in our daily lives as producers, consumers, and citizens. Economics seeks to provide some insight into the nature of these issues and problems and suggests possible solutions. When making decisions as producers, consumers, and citizens in the real world, however, we know we must face certain realities, such as limited resources; and the fact that every proposed solution has a cost. Economics seeks to deal with these realities as it pursues an ultimate goal of improving the overall quality of life that people might enjoy. In summary, as you move through this course it is hoped that a better understanding of the way the world "works" will emerge...along with some better ways to achieve an understanding world.

GRADE QUESTIONS: Students have every right to request an explanation of an assigned grade on any assignment. However, given various instructor responsibilities and time constraints it is expected that students will monitor their grades and course progress and request a review in a timely manner—i.e., within 2 days of the grade posting. The posted grade will become final at the end of the 2 day period.

GRADES
Grades for all assignments and tests will be available in the grade book at the Blackboard or WebCOM web site. Check to be sure your results are properly recorded.

EXTENSION POLICY (applies to ALL assignments and tests)
Course assignments must be submitted on-time. No makeup tests, quizzes, or discussion boards will be given. If a student is unable to take a scheduled test or quiz, please talk to me before the due date of the assignment. In addition, if a makeup assignment is allowed due to extenuating circumstances, it must be completed in a timely manner determined by the instructor.

EXTEMPATING CIRCUMSTANCES
Extenuating circumstances include a death in the family, hospitalization, car accident, etc…. All circumstances must be accompanied by documentation as the Richland College Handbook states is Richland policy. Being sick or having computer issues is not an extenuating circumstance. Extenuating circumstances are the only reason that a student may be allowed to make up an assignment.

ALL FINAL GRADES WILL BE POSTED ON THE DCCCD E-CONNECT SITE

X. EXAMS AND ASSIGNMENTS:
In this course you will find 4 units with 3 lessons in each—12 lessons total. Please note the assignments that are due for each lesson and unit and the posted deadlines. The deadline for each homework or unit test assignment is listed in the course schedule. Unit tests may only be taken once.
