Students must begin attendance in all classes of enrollment. No exceptions. Financial Aid will not be granted to students who have been certified as not attending, by the certification date. For this lecture course, your physical participation in class, on or before the certification date will allow you to receive credit for FA purposes. For certification dates, check with the division or FAO for further information. Students, who are not certified as beginning class, are responsible for any payments due as a result of non-certification, to include the dropping of courses.

Because this is an applied class, attendance is essential and participation is the major part of your grade. You cannot participate or receive instruction if you are not present. Lessons missed due to student absences will not be made up.

IMPORTANT: If you will miss your lesson, you MUST call & leave a message on my cell phone at (214) 769-8560. Please do not share my cell phone number or use it for purposes other than cancellations. Again, DO NOT SHARE MY CELL PHONE NUMBER WITH ANYONE.

Financial Aid Statement
Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Financial Aid Statement for Distance Learning Classes
If you are receiving Financial Aid grants or loans and are enrolled in a Distance Learning class, you must show participation in this class prior to the certification date by either e-mailing or contacting the instructor or logging on to eCampus. Do not drop or stop attending any class without

You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. Classroom Etiquette
You are allowed one absence with no affect on the grade in the case of illness or emergency. Therefore, please do not come to your lesson sick. We are in a small room, and many students follow your lesson – we do not need a whole department full of sick singers!
Do not wear perfume or cologne or other scents to your lesson.
Do not smoke. It will ruin your voice. If you are around smokers, please avoid them before your lesson and do not come in smelling of smoke.

Grade protests
You will be assigned a grade at the end of each lesson. It is your responsibility to inquire about that grade at the time it is given and to protest at that time if necessary. After the lesson period, the grade may not longer be protested.
Final grades for the course are posted on ecampus at the end of the semester. Students must protest the grade within one week of its posting on ecampus. After that time, the grade stands.
Late work/make up work
Lessons will not be made up. However, if you can locate another student to swap lessons with you, you may do so. Recitals and juries cannot be made up.

Attire
Students must dress up for recitals and juries. Dress as you would if you were performing in a concert hall for an afternoon performance or at a nice church service – not formal or semi-formal, just dressy. Jeans, t-shirts, tennis shoes, etc. are not acceptable. Mini-skirts, low cut shirts, and other revealing clothing is not acceptable. NO FLIP-FLOPS.

The instructor reserves the right to amend this syllabus as necessary.
