Course Title: Guitar Class I
Course Number: MUSI 1193
Instructor: Stephen Nutt snutt@dcccd.edu
Required Texts: The Christopher Parkening Guitar Method Vol. 1 by Christopher Parkening, Hal Leonard Publishing

COURSE DESCRIPTION
An introduction to basic techniques and concepts of acoustic guitar based on classical guitar technique, as well as music fundamentals such as reading chord symbols and simple melodies.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
The goal of this course is to give students a solid foundation in musicianship and technique as applied to the guitar and to expose them to different styles of music using the guitar as the medium. Students will learn chords and major scales in first position, barre chords, right hand finger-styles, how to use a plectrum and basic music reading and chord theory.

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:
1. Demonstrate proper seating position as well as left and right hand position
2. Know all natural notes in first position
3. Recognize natural notes in treble clef up to fifth fret A
4. Play at least one major scale form and five major chord forms in first position
5. Play assigned music literature

UNITS OF INSTRUCTION
1. Music reading exercises
2. Major chords and scales
3. Right hand arpeggio exercises, left hand dexterity exercises
4. Repertoire

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION
Teaching methods will include lectures, demonstration of techniques, group practice and student performance.

EVALUATION
Grading is based on the performance of exercises and pieces throughout the semester. Emphasis is on a slow, steady tempo and clean tone production. This enables total beginners to perform on a more equal basis with more experienced players, thus making grading more equitable. Daily exercises as well as two semester exams will constitute the basis for grading. The student will be expected to individually practice techniques and styles demonstrated in class for a minimum of 20-30 minutes each day.

Grading scale: A=90-100; B=80-89; C=70-79; D=60-69; F=0-59

Daily exercises – 1/3 of grade (demonstration of performance skill, effort, regular practice and progress)
Midterm exam – 1/3 of grade (assigned material to be played individually in class)
Final exam – 1/3 of grade (assigned material to be played individually in class)

ATTENDANCE POLICY
Participation in class rehearsal and lecture/demonstration is crucial to student mastery of assigned coursework. In order to encourage regular attendance, daily grades (see Class Schedule) WILL NOT be made up without documentation of illness or emergency. However, there will be several opportunities for extra credit assignments (such as attending an approved concert and writing a one page review, or writing a two page biography of a guitarist or composer, etc.) which will allow the student to replace a missed daily grade.

Final exams cannot be given early. Communication with the instructor is strongly advised in case the student must miss several classes for any reason.

DROP POLICY

If you are unable to complete this course, you must officially withdraw by: Thursday, April 16, 2015. Withdrawing is a formal procedure which you must initiate; your instructor cannot do it for you. All Dallas County Community Colleges charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third time for a course. This rule applies to the majority of credit and Continuing Education / Workforce Training courses. Developmental Studies and some other courses are not charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any DCCCD college since the fall 2002 semester. For further information, go online to: http://www.DCCCD.edu/thirdcourseattempt.

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP

For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access: https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops

Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Students who fail to attend or participate are also subject to this policy.

To apply for financial aid in the DCCCD, students must complete FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) on the web at: http://www.fafsa.ed.gov
