Assignment Submission:

Please do NOT email me your work! Since this is a 100% internet class, I expect you to submit your work electronically through ecampus or post it in the appropriate discussion forum.

Late Assignments:

Late work is normally not accepted. Discussion board postings are due by midnight (or the end of the day) of the designated due date. I normally leave the discussion board open for 24 hours beyond the cut-off due date and time. In case you miss a discussion board post you have 24 hours after the due date and time to complete it. Beyond that time the discussion board will no longer be available. Tests usually remain open during the entire semester, but you may only take them once.

Electronic Communication with Instructor:

If you email me, please include your Full Name, Course ID Number or Name, and Section Number. Remember I teach multiple classes and multiple sections, with up to 37 students in each section so it helps tremendously when I know who you are.

Withdrawal Policy:

If you are unable to complete this course, you must withdraw through the Admissions Office by drop date as per the college academic calendar. You will not be dropped if you stop coming to class. You will still receive a performance grade of “F”. You must fill out the necessary paper work to withdraw to avoid it effecting your GPA. Sometimes students drop classes when help is available that would enable them to continue. I hope you discuss your plans with me should you decide to withdraw.

Academic Dishonesty:

Scholastic dishonestly shall constitute a violation of these rules and regulations and is punishable as prescribed by Board policies. Scholastic dishonesty shall include, but not be limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion.

Special Note - Copying from the internet without referencing your source or copying other students work including discussion postings constitutes plagiarism!

Six Drop Rule:

NEW! A first-time freshman student who enrolls in a Texas public institution of higher education during the fall semester of 2007 or thereafter, may drop no more than six college level credit courses unless the student demonstrates to an appropriate college official that extenuating circumstance exits.
Grade Reporting:

Grade reports are no longer mailed. Convenient access is available online or by telephone. Use your student identification number when you log in to e-Connect or call DCCCD Touch Tone Services. Web site address: http://econnect.dcccd.edu. Telephone number: 972-613-1818.

Students with Learning, Mental, or Physical Disabilities:

Students requesting accommodations due to the presence of a disability must identify themselves in a timely fashion and demonstrate or document the need for accommodation through the Disability Services Office (DSO). For information regarding the rights and responsibilities of students with disabilities, contact the DSO at (972) 860-8348.

Repeatability Issue:

Pending legislative action and DCCCD Board approval, effective for Fall Semester 2005, the Dallas County Community Colleges will charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. All third and subsequent attempts of the majority of credit and Continuing Education/Workforce Training courses will result in higher tuition to be charged. Developmental Studies and some other courses will not be charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any of the Dallas County Community Colleges since the Fall 2002 semester. For complete information and updates, go to: http://www.dcccd.edu/ThirdCourseAttempt/.

FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974):

In compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), the College may release information classified as "directory information" to the general public without the written consent of the student. Directory information includes: (1) student name, (2) student address, (3) telephone numbers, (4) date and place of birth, (5) weight and height of members of athletic teams, (6) participation in officially recognized activities and sports, (7) dates of attendance, (8) educational institution most recently attended, and (9) other similar information, including major field of study and degrees and awards received. Students may protect their directory information at any time during the academic year. If no request is filed, directory information is released upon written inquiry. No telephone inquiries are acknowledged. No transcript or academic record is released without written consent from the student, except as specified by law.
