Specific Course Learning Outcomes (EEOs)

Prescribe what students must demonstrate to successfully complete an assignment/course. Student Objectives: By completing each class assignment students are expected to meet the following Oral Competencies which have been established by the Communication Department as essential objectives.

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:
1. Apply the principles of human communication including: perception, verbal communication, nonverbal communication, listening, and audience analysis.
2. Demonstrate how to establish and maintain relationships through the use of interpersonal communication.
3. Apply small group communication skills including: problem solving, group roles, leadership styles, and cohesiveness.
4. Develop, research, organize, and deliver formal public speeches
5. Recognize how to communicate within diverse environments

Course Outline:

Tests: There will be 2 written tests administered during the semester. You will need a scantron, #2 pencil, This activity’s requirements meet the CCIC’s 1, 4, & 5, and EEO’s 1, 2, 4, & 5.
Quizzes: There will be 3 written quizzes administered during the semester. This activity’s requirements meet the CCIC’s 1, 4, & 5, and EEO’s 1, 2, 4, & 5.

Your Story Speech: This is a self-disclosure speech where you will be asked to share a story that will give us insight into who you are. Through this story we will learn things such as what interests you, and what you value. However, you are to avoid simply telling us things about yourself (“I like the Mavs…pizza, and cotton candy”). This assignment meets CCIC’s 3, 4, & 5, as well as EEO’s 1, 2, 3, 5, & 6.
Your Story Self-Critique: After reviewing your speech you will write a 2 page double spaced paper where you will analyze yourself as a public speaker and set goals for yourself to improve upon. This paper should also cover “why” you need to improve upon these skills for your particular life goals. Then, after your final speech, you will write one more two page double spaced paper where you will analyze your results and review your further goals. CCIC’s 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, & 6 as well as EEO’s 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Demonstration Speech -- You will research and inform the audience on a process based demonstration. You will present a 4 to 6 minute speech using at least three oral footnotes throughout the speech to indicate scholarly research. There will be a question and answer period at the end of the presentation. You need at three reference sources with works cited page using MLA Handbook. Minimal Notes Only. You MUST turn in to me a typewritten outline and works cited page at the time of delivery. This activity’s requirements meet the CCIC’s 1,2,3,4, 75, as well as EEO’s 1,2,4,&6

Speaking Games: Speaking games are activates that are aimed at helping reduce and/or cope with the anxiety of speaking in front of an audience. Additionally, you will have a specific area of public speaking to focus on improving. Different activities may be assigned to different students depending on their strengths and areas of improvement. No research is necessary, but adequate preparation is required. This assignment meets CCIC’s 1, 3, 4, & 5, as well as EEO’s 1, 2, 3, & 6.

Famous Speaker Paper: You will be assigned a video of a professional public speaker. You are to critique the speech from a public speaking perspective. Avoid discussing your thoughts about the content of the speech, tell me why the speaker was effective or ineffective in your opinion. This is a written essay. CCIC’s 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, & 6 as well as EEO’s 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Persuasive Speech: You will deliver a 4-6 minute speech following Monroe’s Motivated Sequence with the end goal of getting the audience to take a specific action as a result of your speech. This activity’s requirements meet the CCIC’s 1,2,3,4, 75, as well as EEO’s 1,2,4,&6

Wedding Toast: This short, informal speech will provide some direct application in a situation most people will be in at one point in their life. This assignment meets CCIC’s 3, 4, & 5, as well as EEO’s 1, 2, 3, 5, & 6.

Favorite Thing Chapter Speech: This 90 second speech will be given before we cover a chapter in class. You are responsible for reading the chapter and sharing your “favorite thing” that you learned in your reading. The ideal speech will be engaging and memorable to your fellow classmates. This assignment meets CCIC’s 3, 4, & 5, as well as EEO’s 1, 2, 3, 5, & 6.

Teamwork Project: You will be assigned to a group, then working as team you will decide on a nonprofit organization to conduct some simple research for. You will need to contact your non-profit and see what useful information you could prepare for them. Finally, you will present your findings to the class. You must have visual aid. Minimal notes only. This activity’s requirements meet the CCIC’s 1, 2, 3, 4, 75, as well as EEO’s 1, 2, 4, & 6

IN-CLASS ACTIVITIES: These activity’s requirements meet the CCIC’s 1, 2, 3, 4, & 5, as well as EEO’s 1, 2, 3, 4, & 5.

All of the above is subject to change according to time and other factors at my discretion.

Means of Assessment of Course Learning Outcomes
Exams, Oral Presentations, Group Work, Written Papers, Class Participation/Attendance, & Communication Activities.

Evaluation Procedures:
All tests and assignments (the recitation assignments, the speech assignments, lab assignments, etc.) are based upon a point system. Please keep track of your grades on this page. Please see addendums for an itemized breakdown of graded assignments.

CLASS PARTICIPATION: Communication courses are unique in their need for attendance and participation. Consider the difficulty of learning to communicate effectively if you are not engaged in communication. Additionally, educators across disciplines have found that combining multiple learning approaches is the most effective way to learn. In other words, reading, writing, speaking, and discussion, used in conjunction, will enhance your learning. As such, you will be expected to attend classes and actively engage in class discussion. You will be evaluated on quality rather than quantity. Keep in mind speaking often does not necessarily mean that you have offered well thought out and informed contributions.

You are allowed 1 absence per semester with no deduction from your participation grade. However, you are still required to turn in your assignments on time. Absence from class is not an excuse from missing an assignment.

On formal speech days, if your name is called to give your speech and you are not ready, or not in attendance, you will receive 30 percent off your Speech Grade. Your speech must be completed at the next class period or your grade automatically becomes a zero.

If you believe you have a compelling reason for turning in assignments late, you will be required to write a formal email (that is less than one page in length) explaining why I should accept your work past its due date. What I would be looking for is why you missed the assignment, and why you were unable to notify me in advance of this reason.

If you know you will be absent on the day of a formal speech, the student must give the instructor written notice before the day of the speech. If notified of an absence on the same day of the speech, you will still be able to give your speech, but a letter grade will be deducted.

Attendance/Participation points are roughly computed as follows with your starting out with 100 points.

4 or more 0 points
(3 Tardies = 1 Absence)

In addition to mere attendance, your participation during class also counts towards your participation grade. Talking, texting, or any other disruptions will be severely affect your grade.

Exams and Assignments

Your speeches will consist of the “Your exposition” speech, speaking games, informative speech, persuasive speech, and group theory project. In addition, two written exams, three written quizzes, a critical analysis paper and panel, as well as various non-graded in and out of class communication activities.

Grading Scale

The grade for this course is based on a point count system which is as follows:

A= 900-1000 and all graded assignments
B= 800-899
C= 700-799
D= 600-699
F= 599 or less

Discipline/ Course/ Department/Policies

There will be no make-up (late) speeches or tests.
Entry Competencies: College level reading and writing skills
Student Responsibilities: Listen, follow directions, attend class, and be on time

CLASSROOM REQUIREMENTS:

A. It is expected that you will develop an ethical framework to guide communication interactions.
B. There are no make-up assignments if you did not email me 24 hours before your absence.
C. You should keep a digital copy of ALL assignments before they are turned in since I will NOT be held responsible for lost or missing papers.
D. I expect you to be On TIME for class and stay until class is over. However, if it is an emergency, come and talk to me.
E. Three tardies equals one absence.
F. You will receive a thorough description of requirements for all formal assignments before they are due. All assignments done outside of class must be TYPED, double-spaced, with appropriate margin, and a font size of 12 points to receive credit (e.g., papers, outlines, etc.). Your Works Cited will be in MLA format in accordance with the latest edition.
G. Any speech in which the minimum number of sources is not used/cited, will receive a grade of no higher than a “C.” This includes oral citations when presenting the speech as well as in written form in the manuscript. In addition, any speech read from notes will not receive above a “C” grade.
H. Anything you do during a classmates speech that is not simply listening, you will receive a letter grade reduction in YOUR speech grade. This can include, walking into class late, during a student’s speech, talking to your neighbor, texting on your phone, or studying/working in your own notecards for your upcoming speech.
I. Do not chew gum during your speech.
J. Do not enter the classroom if a student is giving a speech. Wait outside and when the speech is over, you may come into the classroom.
K. Laptops may be used in class ONLY for note taking when your professor is lecturing or reviewing you for tests.
L. Cell phones must be turned off or to vibrate during class.
M. Students are expected to behave as adults in a college-appropriate manner. These expected behaviors include punctuality, participation in activities, and positive contribution to the work at hand. Behaviors such as habitual or excessive tardiness, sleeping in class, and excessive talking during instruction or verbal attacks will result in loss of daily participation points. Additionally, after one private warning from the instructor regarding disruptive behavior from individual students, the instructor may elect to refer the student to the Dean of Students AND that student will not be allowed to return to the class until a meeting with the Dean of Students has taken place and appropriate decisions have been made.

N. Incompletes” require that you have a minimum grade of “C” and have a minimum of 70% of the course assignments completed. Incompletes are an option in cases of extreme emergency only and given at the instructor’s discretion.

O. When a paper is more than one page in length it must be stapled. In addition the staple should be in the proper location of the upper left hand corner; any staple that is more than an inch away from the top left hand corner will be deducted 5 points.

Discipline/ Course/ Department/Policies

Late Papers Late Speech Assignments: NOT Accepted without Medical documentation of student’s hospitalization or verifiable death in the immediate family Student Responsibilities: Arrive to class on-time and prepared for class session. Students are responsible for keeping a running total of their grades. You should know your standing in this course at any time during the semester. Grades will be reported back to you as soon as they are recorded. Students are required to keep a folder with all returned material until the end of the semester (it will be turned in as an activity grade).

Classroom Etiquette: MAXIMS (General principles for student success in this course)

A. The following maxims will not change throughout the course of the semester. Student Code of Conduct should be followed (see https://www.northlakecollege.edu). Violation of these principles can result in a student’s loss of extra credit opportunities [Discretion of individual instances will be determined by the course instructor] or by the college administration.

B. Students WILL NOT be allowed to “make-up” missed Speech assignments; due to the time constraints of the class schedule. The ONLY exception to missing your assigned date is in the event of a documented emergency. Your instructor must be contacted within a 24 hour period from the missed speaking event before valid documentation will be considered for a make-up.

C. Video/Audio recordings can only be made with Instructor written approval; Can Not be Publically Posted by Student

D. Acknowledge/respect the human dignity rights of your classmates even if you disagree with their viewpoints.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

The Student Code of Conduct prohibits academic dishonesty and prescribes penalties for violations. According to this code, which is printed in the college catalog, "academic dishonesty", includes (but is not limited to) cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, plagiarism, and collusion.

1) The Vice-President of Academic & Student Affairs may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of academic dishonesty.

2) Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism and collusion.

3) Cheating on a test includes:
   a) Copying from another student’s test paper;
   b) Using, during a test, materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
   c) Collaborating with another student during a test without permission to do so;
   d) Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of an un-administered test.
   e) Substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for you to take a test; and
   f) Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered test or information about an unadministered test.

4) “Plagiarism” means the appropriation of another’s work (ideas and/or words) and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one’s written work offered for credit. Quotes not identified as quotes constitute a form of plagiarism even if the borrowed ideas are documented.

5) “Collusion” means an unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.
Academic dishonesty may result in the following sanctions, including, but not limited to:

1. A grade of zero or a lowered grade on the assignment or course.
2. A reprimand.
3. Suspension from the college.

NOTIFICATION OF ABSENCE DUE TO RELIGIOUS HOLY DAY(S)

Students who will be absent from class for the observance of a religious holiday must notify the instructor in advance. Please refer to the Student Obligations section of the college catalog for more explanation. You are required to complete any assignments or take any examinations missed as a result of the absence within the time frame specified by your instructor.

REQUIREMENTS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (A430)

North Lake College provides academic accommodations to students with disabilities, as defined under ADA law. It is the student's choice and responsibility to initiate any request for accommodations. If you are a student with a disability who requires such ADA accommodations, please contact North Lake College's Disability Services Office in person (A430) or by phone at 972-273-3165.
http://www.northlakecollege.edu/resources/disability.html

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT OF 1974 (FERPA)

In compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), the College may release information classified as “directory information” to the general public without the written consent of the student. Directory information includes: (1) student name, (2) student address, (3) telephone numbers, (4) date and place of birth, (5) weight and height of members of athletic teams, (6) participation in officially recognized activities and sports, (7) dates of attendance, (8) educational institution most recently attended, and (9) other similar information, including major field of student and degrees and awards received. Students may protect their directory information at any time during the academic year. If no request is filed, directory information is released upon written inquiry. No telephone inquiries are acknowledged. No transcript or academic record is released without written consent from the student, except as specified by law.
ADMINISTRATIVE WITHDRAWAL

Students with valid extenuating circumstances may be eligible for an administrative withdrawal by the Dean of the Division in which the course or courses are taught. An administrative withdrawal will not be awarded to students who simply fail to withdraw prior to the last day to receive a “W.” The request for an administrative withdrawal must be made in writing to the Dean of the Division with any supporting documentation attached. This must occur before the last official day of the semester.

DROP POLICY

If you are unable to complete this course, you must officially withdraw by: Thursday, April 16, 2015. Withdrawing is a formal procedure which you must initiate; your instructor cannot do it for you. All Dallas County Community Colleges charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third time for a course. This rule applies to the majority of credit and Continuing Education / Workforce Training courses. Developmental Studies and some other courses are not charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any DCCCD college since the fall 2002 semester. For further information, go online to: http://www.DCCCD.edu/thirdcourseattempt.

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP

For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access: https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops.

FINANCIAL AID STATEMENT

Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate are also subject to this policy.
To apply for financial aid in the DCCCD, students must complete FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) on the web at:
http://www.fafsa.ed.gov

COUNSELING SERVICES (A311)

Counseling services for personal issues are provided to all students currently enrolled at North Lake College at NO CHARGE. These services are provided by licensed professionals who are bound by confidentiality (within ethical parameters). With the assistance of a counselor, students are able to identify, understand, resolve issues and develop appropriate skills. To make an appointment call 972-273-3333 or visit A311.
