The grading scale is:  A (90% +)  B (80-89%)  C (70-79%)  D (60-69%)  F (59% & below)

Certification Procedures:
For state reporting purposes, this lecture course will capture attendance data. The student must log onto eCampus and access the course content to meet certification requirements. During the fall and spring terms the state reporting date is the 12th class day, and during the summer terms, the date is the fourth class day.

February 2, 2016

If you find that you are unable to complete the course, it is your responsibility to withdraw. The last day to drop with a grade of “W” is April 14, 2016.

Students must begin attendance in all classes of enrollment. No exceptions. Financial Aid will not be granted to students who have been certified as not attending, by the certification date. For this lecture course, your physical participation in class, on or before the certification date will allow you to receive credit for FA purposes. For certification dates, check with the division or FAO for further information. Students, who are not certified as beginning class, are responsible for any payments due as a result of non-certification, to include the dropping of courses.

Late Work Policy:
Late work not accepted. The only exception is a medically documented emergency.

Makeup Exam Policy:
Late work not accepted. The only exception is a medically documented emergency.
College Sponsored Events:
It is your responsibility to arrange for course responsibilities one week prior to the event. Failure to do so will result in zero credit for any missed assignments.

Electronic Devices: (N/A for Online Instruction)
Silent all electronic devices (telephones) during class. You must exit the room to answer any calls. If your calls become an interruption to the class, I reserve the right to dismiss you from the classroom.

Academic Dishonesty:
Students that caught plagiarizing an assignment will be subject to an “F” in the course and possible expulsion from the college.

*Academic honesty is expected, and integrity is valued in the Dallas County Community Colleges. Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct.
