12. SPECIFIC ACADEMIC DISHONESTY POLICY FOR THIS CLASS:

Plagiarism or copying of another person’s work is an “F” for the final grade.
Any instance of cheating on assignments or exams is an “F” for the final grade.
All cheating will be reported to the Dean of the Fine Arts Division.
See https://www1.dcccd.edu/catalog/ss/code.cfm?loc=2

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY MAY BE DEFINED AS THE FOLLOWING:

All forms of academic dishonesty, including cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, plagiarism, and collusion.

Collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test without permission from the test administrator.

Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, or soliciting, in whole or in part, the contents of an unadministered test.

The unauthorized transporting or removal, in whole or in part, of the contents of the unadministered test.

Substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for one’s self, to take a test.

Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered test or information about an unadministered test.

“Plagiarism” shall be defined as the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another’s work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one’s own written work.

16. GENERAL STATEMENT ABOUT INSTRUCTOR RIGHTS:
   This instructor retains rights throughout the semester to add to, delete or revise segments of the course or syllabus. All changes will be sent via e-mail to class students.

PART B: INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES

17. DROP/WITHDRAWAL POLICY:
   Withdrawing from a course is a formal procedure which YOU must initiate; the instructor cannot do it for you. You may do this in Admissions or Counseling. If you stop attending class and do not withdraw, you will receive a performance grade, which can result in an “F.” Students sometimes drop courses when help is available that would enable them to continue. Please discuss your plans with the instructor if you feel the need to withdraw.

   To drop a class or withdraw from the college, you must follow the prescribed procedure. It is your responsibility as a student to drop or withdraw. Failure to do so will result in your receiving a performance grade, usually a grade of "F".

You can drop or withdraw from classes in three ways:

1. In person
   Visit your college Admissions/Registrar’s Office (and/or advising) at http://www.dcccd.edu/Why/Apply/Pages/AdmRegOff.aspx and complete a drop/withdrawal form.

2. Online
   Drop classes online through eConnect at https://econnect.dcccd.edu/. In certain instances you may not be able to drop online; you will have to drop in person or by mail. Click on Current Student Credit Menu, then Drop Classes.

3. By mail or fax
   Print this drop form (PDF - 36KB) http://www.dcccd.edu/Why/Reg/Registration/Documents/DropRequestForm.pdf, fill it out and mail or fax it to the college Admissions/Registrar’s Office. You must give at least one reason why you are dropping for each class. Forms that are mailed or faxed must be postmarked or date-stamped on a date prior to or on the last day to drop the class. Be sure to include a legible copy of a photo ID with your form.

   A drop/withdrawal request by any means must be received in the Admissions/Registrar's Office (and/or advising) by the official drop/withdrawal deadline as indicated on the Academic calendar and the current class schedule. No drop or withdrawal requests are accepted by telephone or email.

   See Refund Policy for possible refund eligibility. Students who drop or withdraw should be aware of the course Repeat Policy.
18. APPROVED COLLEGE STATEMENT CONCERNING THE STATE’S 6-DROP POLICY
(Dropping a Course or Withdrawing from College)

1. A severe illness or other debilitating condition that affects the student's ability to satisfactorily complete the course.
2. The student's responsibility for the care of a sick, injured, or needy person if the provision of that care affects the student's ability to satisfactorily complete the course.
3. The death of a person who is considered to be a member of the student's family or who is otherwise considered to have a sufficiently close relationship to the student that the person's death is considered to be a showing of good cause.
4. The active duty service as a member of the Texas National Guard or the armed forces of the United State of either the student or a person who is considered to be a member of the student's family or who is otherwise considered to have a sufficiently close relationship to the student that the person's active military service is considered to be a showing of good cause.
5. The change of the student's work schedule that is beyond the control of the student, and that affects the student's ability to satisfactorily complete the course.
6. Other good cause as determined by the college official.

Contact your college's Admissions/Registrar's or counseling/advising office for further details related to exceptions or visit the FAQ's on Facts about Dropping Classes at https://econnect.dcccd.edu/eConnect/droppingfacts.html

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board finalized its rules associated with this statute on October 25, 2007. Students affected by this law who plan to attend another institution of higher education should become familiar with that institution's policies on dropping courses.

19. ACADEMIC DISHONESTY POLICY AND LINK TO STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT:
Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and is punishable as stated in college policies. Please review the full Student Code of Conduct as listed in the college catalog for additional information.
https://www1.dcccd.edu/catalog/ss/code.cfm?loc=2

20. INFORMATION ABOUT AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT - ADA STATEMENT
If you feel you may need special assistance or accommodation (such as help with taking notes, extra time on tests, etc.) because of any type of physical disability or learning difference, please contact the Special Services office in Room S124 or at 972-860-4673.

21. INFORMATION ABOUT STUDENT ABSENCES DUE TO RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS:
A student shall be excused from attending classes, or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student whose absence is excused under this provision may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment within a reasonable time after the absence.
22. FINANCIAL AID STATEMENT:
Failure to attend classes could result in a loss of Financial Aid (FA). If you are receiving any form of financial aid, you should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate after the drop date are also subject to this policy.

23. INFORMATION ABOUT REPEATING THIS COURSE:
Each college of the DCCCD charges additional tuition to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. All third and subsequent attempts of the majority of credit and continuing education/workforce training courses will result in additional tuition being charged.

Developmental Studies and some other courses will not be charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts included courses taken at any of the DCCCD colleges since the Fall 2002 semester.

https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat1112/ss/oep/third_attempt.cfm?loc=econ

24. FERPA STATEMENT:
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. More information is available at https://www1.dcccd.edu/catalog/about/privacy.cfm

DCCCD OIE Faculty Syllabi Statement- FALL 2016

The Office of Institutional Equity, in coordination with DCCCD colleges, has the primary responsibility for reviewing, updating and implementing compliance policies and procedures. The Institutional Equity and Compliance Officer and the Office of Institutional Equity will ensure compliance with College District policies, federal and state laws related to sexual assault, Title IX, Title II (Americans with Disabilities Act) and the Military Veterans Full Employment Act to support diversity and inclusion.

Students with Disabilities:
If you are a student with a disability and/or special needs, or if you think you may have a disability, please contact the college Disability Services Office (DSO). Please note that all communication with DSO is confidential. If you are eligible for accommodations, please request that the DSO send your accommodation letter to me as soon as possible (students are encouraged to contact DSO at the beginning of the semester). For more information regarding the College Disability Services Office, please visit the Student Services website: dcccd.edu/DSOffices or contact DCCCD Office of Institutional Equity at (214) 378-1633.

A Note on Harassment, Discrimination and Sexual Misconduct
We are committed to assure all community members learn and work in a welcoming and inclusive environment. Title VII, Title IX and DCCCD policy prohibit harassment, discrimination and sexual misconduct. If you encounter harassment, sexual misconduct (sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, relationship violence, stalking), retaliation or discrimination based on race, color, religion, age, national origin, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and/or gender expression, please contact your College Title IX Coordinator or the Office of Institutional Equity. We treat this information with the greatest degree of confidentiality possible while also ensuring student welfare and college safety.

We are concerned about the well-being and development of our students, and are available to discuss any concerns. There are both confidential and non-confidential resources and reporting options available to you. If students wish to keep the information confidential, please contact the college Counseling or Student Health Services. As required by DCCCD policy, incidents of discrimination and/or sexual misconduct shared with faculty will be reported to the College Title IX Coordinator or District Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator will contact the student and determine if further investigation is needed. For more information about policies, resources or reporting options, please contact your college Title IX Coordinator or visit www.dcccd.edu/titleIX.
