- Unit 4 – Cause and Effect Essays; Cause and Effect Essay Assignment
- Unit 5 – Argumative Essays; Argumentative Essay Assignment

- 5 Essays  50%
  The first draft of the Comparison and Cause and Effect Essay assignments will be administered in-class in order to prepare students for the final in-class essay experience. These first drafts will be graded by your instructor with departmental rubrics used for grading the final exam. For these essay assignments, unlike the final, students will have the opportunity to write a final draft to improve their grades.

- Attendance, Meaningful Participation and Homework 10%

- Final in-class Essay 25%
  This writing exam will be administered on the scheduled final exam date and time. Only students who are passing with a grade of C or better will be eligible to take the final. Upon arrival, students will be presented with a Comparison and a Cause/Effect prompt to choose from and permitted 90 minutes to write a 4-paragraph essay. The essay will be scored by 2 outside readers. A clear pass will earn 100%, a borderline pass will earn 50%, and a fail will earn 0%.

- Writing Lab 15%
  Each class has a mandatory lab orientation at the beginning of the semester. During the orientation students will be given a brief introduction to the software and a lab assignment guide, which outlines the requirements for completing the lab.

Using the Computer to Complete Assignments
Students may choose to do in-class writing assignments either on the computer or in longhand. However, all out-of-class written work (including re-writes) must be done on the computer.

Missing the Final
The final must be taken at the scheduled date and time; otherwise, the student will receive a 0.

Grading Scale
Final grades will be assigned as follows: 90-100% = A, 80-89% = B, 70-79% = C, 69% and below = E or F. Students who have attended, participated and completed assignments regularly, yet score below 70% or do not pass the exit exam will receive an E. E unlike an F, is not computed in a student’s GPA.

Student Learning Outcomes
All students at the ESOL 0053 course level will write an effective thesis statement for an essay on the writing exit exam with a 70% level of proficiency as determined by a double-blind evaluation process.

All students at the ESOL 0053 course level will write an effective concluding paragraph for an essay on the writing exit exam with a 70% level of proficiency as determined by a double-blind evaluation process.

Important Class Policies

- Students may not bring friends or family to class as guests. Only people enrolled in the course may attend.
- Minors (i.e., children under the age of 18) may not accompany an adult student in class or in the lab, nor may they be left on campus unattended by an adult.
- Please be courteous. Cell telephones and beepers must be turned off during class.
- Students should not eat or drink during class time.
- Excellent attendance, class participation and completion of homework assignments are essential components for student success in this class as indicated by the grading policy. It is the student’s responsibility to contact or speak with a classmate in order to obtain notes on information missed due to tardiness or absence. If a student arrives late, needs to leave early, or cannot attend class, it is proper etiquette to give an explanation to the instructor though this does not excuse time missed.

INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY
The Student Code of Conduct prohibits academic dishonesty and prescribes penalties for violations. According to this code, which is printed in the college catalog, "academic dishonesty", includes (but is not limited to) cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, plagiarism, and collusion".

Academic dishonesty may result in the following sanctions, including, but not limited to:

1. A grade of zero or a lowered grade on the assignment or course.
2. A reprimand.
3. Suspension from the college.

NOTIFICATION OF ABSENCE DUE TO RELIGIOUS HOLY DAY(S)

Students who will be absent from class for the observance of a religious holiday must notify the instructor in advance. Please refer to the Student Obligations section of the college catalog for more explanation. You are required to complete any assignments or take any examinations missed as a result of the absence within the time frame specified by your instructor.

REQUIREMENTS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

North Lake College provides academic accommodations to students with disabilities, as defined under ADA law. It is the student's choice and responsibility to initiate any request for accommodations. If you are a student with a disability who requires such ADA accommodations, please contact North Lake College's Disability Services Office in person (A430) or by phone at 972-273-3165.

DROP POLICY
If you are unable to complete this course, you must officially withdraw by __04/27/2017___.
Withdrawing is a formal procedure which you must initiate; your instructor cannot do it for you.

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP
For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access:
https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops

FINANCIAL AID STATEMENT
Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate after the drop date are also subject to this policy.

THE ACADEMIC SUCCESS CENTER (ASC, Room A332)
The ASC provides a variety of services designed to help students develop and improve their writing and language skills:

I. The Writing Center provides tutoring for any writing assignment for any class as well as personal writing projects, including college application essays, resumes, and letters. The tutors can help students clarify writing tasks, develop and organize papers, explore revision options, detect grammar and punctuation errors, properly use and document sources, and improve their writing skills.

II. The iRead Lab offers individual and small group tutoring, as well as workshops, to help current students improve their skills for reading, studying, and test taking.

III. The ESOL Lab, with 20 computer workstations, is for ESOL students to work on assignments, homework, lab activities, and any other related tasks. An experienced lab attendant is on duty during business hours to assist students. The lab also offers ESOL tutoring and a weekly conversation group to help students improve English listening and speaking skills.

IV. Foreign Language tutoring is available to students enrolled in foreign languages courses (i.e. Spanish and French). Students can receive assistance with homework, labs, and other foreign language related assignments.

V. The Online Writing Lab (OWL) allows students to submit papers to our writing tutors electronically and get feedback within 24-48 hours. The OWL can be accessed through eCampus.
   - After logging on to eCampus, click on the Community Tab at the top.
   - Type “OWL” in the search field and click “Go.”
Next, click on the double drop-down arrows next to “NLC-OWL2,” and then click on “Enroll.”
Once enrolled, click “Submit Paper Here” to upload assignment.
Students in the NLC-OWL2 eCampus Community has access to all OWL related services.

VI. The Blazer Internet Lounge, with 12 computers, additional open seating, and WiFi Internet access, is available to students who are working on academic or personal projects individually or in groups. The Lounge also has books and DVDs available for student use.

For more information or to schedule a tutoring appointment, come by A-332 or call 972-273-3089.

COUNSELING SERVICES
Counseling services for personal issues are provided to all students currently enrolled at North Lake College at NO CHARGE. These services are provided by or supervised by licensed professionals who are bound by confidentiality (within ethical parameters). With the assistance of a counselor, students are able to identify, understand, resolve issues and develop appropriate skills. To make an appointment call 972-273-3333 or go to A 311.

CAREER SERVICES – ROOM H220
North Lake’s Career Services Center provides FREE career planning and job search services to current students, students in the process of enrolling, alumni, and members of the community. Some of the many ways Career Services help students and graduates prepare for a lifetime of professional work are career guidance and counseling, resume preparation, interview techniques, and help finding a job.
