With each assignment in your CDA Professional Portfolio, you have to prove to me, in words, your in-depth understanding of the CDA Competencies. If you do just exactly what is described in the CDA Competency Standards book, you will probably earn a "C". Higher grades require more in-depth thought and higher levels of understanding.

Homework is due on the date indicated on the course calendar. If circumstances prevent you from turning work in on time, you have one week to turn it in without penalty. Thereafter, one letter grade will be taken off for each class period it is late. Exceptions to this policy are at the discretion of the professor and will be considered only for major illnesses, surgery or family crisis.

A grade of incomplete will only be given for a documented legitimate illness or family emergency that prevents you from completing your work. Even with such an emergency, you will still be expected to have completed 75% of all your assignments before an incomplete will be considered. Remaining work must be completed by the date agreed upon with the instructor.

Certification of Participation:

You must attend and participate in your on-campus or online course(s) in order to receive federal financial aid. Your instructor is required by law to validate your attendance in your on-campus or online course in order for you to receive financial aid. You must participate in an academic related activity pertaining to the course but not limited to the following examples: initiating contact with your instructor to ask a question about the academic subject studied in the course; submitting an academic assignment; taking an exam; completing an interactive video; participating in computer-assisted instruction; attending a study group assigned by the instructor; or participating in an online discussion board about academic matters relating to the course. In an online course, simply logging in is not sufficient by itself to demonstrate academic attendance. You must demonstrate that you are participating in your online class and are engaged in an academically related activity such as in the examples described above. Failure to do so will prevent you from being certified and will affect your financial aid.

Attendance Policy:
If you are more than 15 minutes late for class, you will be marked tardy. Three tardies equal an absence. Absences are figured into your participation grade. The CDA Council requires that I document the number of hours of training you have on each of the eight CDA training areas. You must have a minimum of ten hours in each area. This means that you will be responsible for making up classes missed through topic related workshops or viewing topic related videos outside of class time. For example, if you miss the class that discusses parent involvement, you need to find 2.5 hours of training on that subject to make up the class. You are responsible for identifying and obtaining this make up training. You must show me evidence (certificate or written summary of the videos, etc.) that you have made up the work.

Repeating This Course: (Third Attempt to Enroll in a Course)
Effective for Fall Semester 2005, the Dallas County Community Colleges will charge additional tuition to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. All third and subsequent attempts of the majority of credit and Continuing Education/Workforce Training courses will result in additional tuition to be charged. Developmental Studies and some other courses will not be charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any of the Dallas County Community Colleges since the Fall 2002 Semester. See Third Attempt to Enroll in a Course at: http://www.dcccd.edu/thirdcourseattempt/

Criminal Backgrounds:

If you are unable to complete this course, it is your responsibility to withdraw formally. The withdrawal request must be received in the Registrar’s Office by April 14, 2016. exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges.
