Class Website and Email: You will be required to use eCampus in this course. Assignments, test dates, course documents, your grades, etc. will be posted on the eCampus website for this course. You are responsible for monitoring this site daily for such information. You may access the site through the internet via phttp://ecampus.dcccd.edu. You may also access eCampus by going to the Eastfield College home page and clicking on “eCampus”; the Eastfield college home page is http://www.eastfieldcollege.edu or http://www.dcccd.edu. If you do not have a computer at home, you may access eCampus in the Eastfield library. For course and grade-related questions or sending files, please set up a free student Outlook account. See the “Student Email” section in this syllabus.

Technology Requirements: Some specific software is required for this class because it is online.

- Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Chrome, or other web browser fully updated: To navigate eCampus, you will need a web browser that has been recently updated.
- Microsoft Word or Google Docs: For this course, you will need Microsoft Word or Google Docs to submit your typed assignments. Please save files as either an .rtf (rich text format), .odt (open document), .doc (word document 97-2003), or .docx (word document) file extension.
  - Any documents I cannot open, for whatever reason, will not be graded. Any assignment not graded will automatically earn a 0 for that assignment. Please plan accordingly.
  - Any documents I cannot edit and give you feedback inside the document, such as a PDF, will not be graded. Any assignment not graded will automatically earn a 0 for that assignment. Please plan accordingly.
- Adobe Reader: You will also need to download Adobe Reader to view course learning materials. It is a free download available at http://get.adobe.com/reader/.
- A DCCCD student Outlook account: A DCCCD student Outlook account is required for sending files or asking questions regarding grades in this class. Do not email me from personal email accounts, such as Yahoo! or Gmail, if you are writing concerning grades. I WILL NOT RESPOND.

Email Communication: As email is vital to communication in this course, be sure to:

- Make sure your email address is complete and accurate. If you need to update your email address, go to eCampus, click on “My DCCCD.” Then go to “Tools” and click on "Personal Information." Change your email address and hit submit.
- Check to make sure that your junk mail or bulk mail filters do not delete or reroute emails sent from the user group in eCampus. Be especially carefully with this if you are using a Yahoo! or Hotmail account.
- PLEASE MAKE SURE THAT YOUR EMAIL IS CURRENT. This means the email I have for you is one you actually use.
- Whenever you email me, be sure that you include your first and last name, your course and section number, and a clear and concise communication or question. This way I can quickly identify emails from you in my inbox, e.g. the subject line of a student’s email might read: Tony Stark ENGL 1301-41401.

- Check your email daily to keep up with course correspondence.
- Emails will generally be responded to within 24-48 hours, if not sooner. Response times will be slower on weekends.
- eCampus Messages are not checked daily. Response times may vary.
- Do not attempt to send work via email. All assignments must be submitted through eCampus. Any assignments emailed as an attachment will not be opened or graded.
- Emails concerning grades will not be responded to unless the student has emailed the instructor from a DCCCD student Outlook account.

Eastfield College Email Policy: Legal privacy issues prevent your instructor from discussing your work or your grades on commercial e-mail accounts. If you wish to send assignments/drafts as attachments to an e-mail (and the instructor permits it), or if you have a question about your grade, you must open a student e-mail account. The account is free. You may set it up by going to http://www.dcccd.edu/MSOffice. All communication should be conducted through your official student email account.

Grading Scale: A=90-100, B=80-89, C=70-79, D=60-69, F=0-59

Evaluations Procedures: Your grade will be based on the following weighted categories:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Weight</th>

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Essays</td>
<td>45%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mini-research paper</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Daily Grades</td>
<td>35%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Category Specifications:

Essays

Students will write multiple essays throughout the course of the semester. Essays include in and out of class papers, prewriting, drafts, peer reviews, and rewrites. Unless otherwise directed, all essays must be in MLA style, typed, double-spaced, minimum 900 words. Only Times New Roman, 12-point font will be accepted. Students are to turn in all of the work associated with each essay. Essay grades will be affected by missing outlines, drafts, or sources, and being absent on peer review days.

Mini-research paper

Students will write a persuasive mini-research paper that adheres to MLA style guidelines (8th ed.) for in-text parenthetical citations and Works Cited pages, minimum 1200 words. Only Times New Roman, 12-point font will be accepted. Students are to turn in all of the work associated with the mini-research paper. Mini-research paper grades will be affected by missing outlines, drafts, or sources, and being absent on peer review days. Instructions will be provided by the appropriate date.

Daily Grades

Students will complete shorter assignments that fall into the daily grades category. Daily grades can include but are not limited to quizzes, discussion boards, class discussions, peer reviews, reading responses, and short writings.
Late Work Policy: No late work will be accepted for this course. Deadlines are a part of the professional world and of life. Drop boxes will be set up to close on due dates at 11:59 p.m. If the drop box is closed when you try to submit, it is late, and I DO NOT ACCEPT LATE WORK.

Technical Issues: Because we turn in much of our work electronically, internet accessibility is mandatory, meaning home outages or computer problems do not excuse late work. Please plan accordingly. In the event of technical issues, screenshots (PrtSc, Ctrl+v) must be emailed to the instructor as evidence; burden of proof is on the student. You may also contact eCampus technical support and forward any messages they send you to me. I will review them and consider the issue. Tech support tickets do not automatically excuse late work; each situation will require assessment. In extenuating cases, consideration is given if documentation of the error can be provided by you or by eCampus technical support.

Attendance: Students who are successful in this course log in to eCampus daily. Your attendance is verified not only by logging in but also participating in the course by completing assignments. To be certified in this course, you must participate by completing a minimum of one assignment before the certification date. Valid documentation must be provided for “absences,” e.g. a doctor’s note. If valid documentation is provided, the student may contract with the professor regarding missed assignments. It is up to the professor’s discretion whether or not to contract based on the validity of the documentation provided.

Certification: You must attend and participate in your on-campus or online course(s) in order to receive federal financial aid. Your instructor is required by law to validate your attendance in your on-campus or online course in order for you to receive financial aid. You must participate in an academic related activity pertaining to the course but not limited to the following examples: initiating contact with your instructor to ask a question about the academic subject studied in the course; submitting an academic assignment; taking an exam; completing an interactive video; participating in computer-assisted instruction; attending a study group assigned by the instructor; or participating in an online discussion board about academic matters relating to the course. In an online course, simply logging in is not sufficient by itself to demonstrate academic attendance. You must demonstrate that you are participating in your online class and are engaged in an academically related activity such as in the examples described above. Failure to do so will prevent you from being certified and will affect your financial aid.

Writing Expectations: Students will compose essays that adhere to grammatical and stylistic standards of academic American English and follow Modern Language Association (MLA) style. All written assignments must be double spaced with 1-inch margins on all sides and in Times New Roman, size 12 font, with the four-line MLA style heading and MLA style page numbering. See the video on eCampus under week 1 to learn or review how to format your paper in MLA style on MS Word.

Please note: Any of the following writing expectation errors will result in your essay not being graded. If an essay is not graded, it automatically earns a zero. Essays will not be graded if:
- They do not meet length requirements (minimums or maximums).
- They contain unapproved research.
- They are not submitted through SafeAssign.
- They do not follow directions regarding topic or rhetorical mode.

Assignment Feedback: Feedback on assignments, in particular on final drafts of essays, will be provided on eCampus. You can and should access this feedback via the eCampus grade book, where you will either find an attachment with feedback from the professor or a grade note with comments from the professor. It is your responsibility to check this feedback and apply it to your writing. In other words, any comments given on a final draft should be applied to the next essay assignment, thereby showing your growth as a writer and improving your reading/writing skills.

Netiquette Expectations: Your enrollment in this class indicates acceptance of the standards of conduct published in the current edition of the Eastfield College Catalog. As you are a college student, I consider you to be a responsible adult. All rules, regulations, and guidelines as listed and explained in the Eastfield College, Dallas County Community Colleges Catalog, (Code of Student Conduct) will be followed. It is important that you read the Code of Student Conduct carefully. Below are some specific expectations of you as an online student.

Email Etiquette: Emails are a constant in the academic and professional worlds. Therefore, it is important that you practice proper email etiquette at all times. When emailing the professor, you are expected to:

- Begin with a greeting or salutation. This is both professional and courteous.
- Use Standard American English and proper grammar, punctuation, and spelling.
- All subject lines for this class should include your name and the course level and section, e.g. Tony Stark ENGL 1301-41401.
- Never type in all uppercase letters.
- Use courteous language and tone; write professionally—all college writing is business formal, not something you send to friends or family.
- Sign your name at the bottom of the email. Again, this is both professional and courteous.
- Emails concerning course grades will not be responded to unless the student has emailed the instructor from a DCCCD student Outlook account.

Discussion Board Etiquette: Discussion boards are a significant part of almost any hybrid class. Therefore, it is important you practice proper discussion board etiquette at all times. When posting to the discussion board, you are expected to:

- Participate a minimum of three times per discussion board.
- Read and follow all directions carefully.
- Title your thread appropriately (meaning title it something that has to do with the prompt or topic).
- When responding to classmates or your instructor, include a greeting or salutation as you would with an email. This is both professional and courteous.
- Use tactful/courteous language with fellow students.
- Create an atmosphere where other students feel comfortable posting their responses.
- Provide constructive criticism to fellow classmates’ responses and essays.
- Refrain from using profanity or disrespectful language.
- When responding to classmates or your instructor, sign your name at the bottom of your response. This is both professional and courteous.
- Proofread assignments BEFORE posting.
- Respect the opinions of others even if you do not agree.
- “Flaming” or derogatory comments will not be tolerated. NO EXCEPTIONS.

ACADEMIC HONESTY & PLAGIARISM—English Departmental Policy

Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct published in the DCCCD Catalog at http://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0506/ss/code.cfm

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on tests, plagiarism and collusion. Cheating includes copying from another student’s test or homework paper, using materials not authorized, collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test, knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, or soliciting the contents of an unadministered test, and substituting for another person to take a test. Plagiarism is the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another’s work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one’s own written work. Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements.

Academic dishonesty is a serious offense in college. You can be given a failing grade on an assignment or test, can be failed for the class, or you can even be suspended from college. In any written paper, you are guilty of the academic offense known as plagiarism if you partially or entirely copy the author’s sentences or words without quotation marks. For such an offense, a student will receive a zero on the assignment and could even receive an F for the course. You cannot mix the author’s words with your own or “plug” your synonyms into the author’s sentence structure. To prevent unintentional borrowing, resist the temptation to look at the source as you write, unless you are using a direct quote. The author’s words, phrases, sentences must be put in your words, in your way of writing. When you do this, you are demonstrating the ability of understanding and comprehension.

Please be advised that academic dishonesty and plagiarism are serious issues that may result in serious consequences. Students should be aware that they are responsible for their behavior concerning these issues. This class will adhere to the student’s “Responsibility” as detailed in the DCCCD district-wide statement and the Eastfield College Student Code of Conduct explained in the Eastfield College and district catalogs or on-line at the district website (https://www1dcccd.edu/cat0608/ss/code.cfm).

Consequences for Academic Dishonesty and/or Plagiarism: Any student in this English class found guilty of cheating on an examination or of Plagiarism (using the definitions given for both terms in the attached document) will receive one or more of the following penalties:

- The grade of zero (0) on that particular assignment.
- A course grade of F (depending on the severity of the student’s dishonesty or plagiarism).
- The professor may request that the student drop the class.

Institutional Policies: Please use the following link to access all up to date institutional policies: https://www.eastfieldcollege.edu/au/fastfacts/legal/pages/policies-for-syllabi.aspx

Responsibility: Each student shall be charged with notice and knowledge of the contents and provisions of the District’s policies, procedures, and regulations concerning student conduct. All students shall obey the law, show respect for properly constituted authority, and observe correct standards of conduct
