3. Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.
4. Write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.
5. Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.)

Core Objectives:
ENGL 1302 develops the following Core Objectives:

Critical Thinking - to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.

Core Objective Development Statements:
ENGL 1302 demonstrates Communication by requiring students to produce a clearly written research-based argumentative/persuasive college-level essay.

English 1302 demonstrates Critical Thinking by requiring students to use effective research strategies, in the evaluation of sufficient, reliable, evidence-based library information sources to be incorporated into a research essay.

English 1302 students demonstrate Teamwork through peer editing and peer review of research essay drafts and through the collaborative exploration of English components including logic, ethics, merit, credibility, synthesis, grammar, punctuation, etc., prior to final essay submission.

English 1302 develops Personal Responsibility by requiring students to write multiple drafts, follow student codes of conduct in regards to plagiarism in the research essay writing process (e.g., summarizing, paraphrasing, directly quoting, parenthetical in-text citing, etc.), and to practice academic honesty as a standard for their academic rigor and a representation of themselves.

ASSIGNMENTS:
Please read all of the reading assignments. Essays are due on the day they are requested by the instructor. You may submit assignments 1-2 days before the due date.

*I do not provide make-up quizzes or exams. Late Assignments (Essays, quizzes, discussion board postings, presentations, and questions) will not be accepted. The due dates for the Assignments are listed on this syllabus. If you cheat or plagiarize at least one assignment, you will receive a grade of “F” for the assignment and a course grade of “F.”

*SCO (Second Chance Opportunity) – Unexpected things happen during the semester (e.g. family/personal emergency, confusion of due dates because of multiple courses, temporary forgetfulness, writer’s block, sudden changes in work schedule, etc.). Therefore, you are allowed to submit only one of the late/missing essays within 48 hours of the due date if you agree to certain conditions. Example: If the essay is due before 12:30 p.m. on Monday, you may submit the assignment before 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday via DCCCD Student Email because the ecampus assignment link will not be available after the due date. A reduction of a letter grade, equivalent to 1 or 2 points, will be applied to the final grade of the late essay. Since it is not fair to those students who have submitted their essay on time, you will not earn full credit for the late essay. Example: If you earned 8.0 (B) for the late essay, your final grade for the essay will be changed to 7.0 (C). The SCO will be applied to only one late/missing essay. Each additional late or missing essay will result in a grade of zero. If you miss a quiz, the grade for the missed quiz will be dropped as the lowest quiz grade. If you miss a writing exercise, draft and peer review session, and/or final exam, SCO does not apply. Eventually, the updated grade for the late essay will replace the zero grade in “My Grades,” so please be patient. Before the final exam week, you must have completed at least 60% of the coursework and acquired less than 3 absences in order for Dr. Cho to apply the SCO to the submitted late/missing assignment. SCO will not be given to students who completed less than 60% of the coursework and acquired more than 2 absences before the final exam week. If the student agrees to these conditions, then he or she may request for the SCO by contacting Dr. Cho via DCCC Student email or meeting in person on the day the assignment is due or the day before the assignment is due. SCO is a privilege not a right, so please do not negotiate for more SCOs.

* Please note that SCO is Dr. Cho’s policy, so she will not offer it if the student does not agree to the above conditions or decides to manipulate it for his or her advantage. No other exceptions and negotiations allowed. Each professor conducts his or her class differently.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY: All course materials and course content are the intellectual property of the instructor. As a result, recording audio or video of the class, as well as the duplication of or forwarding of e-mail and Blackboard postings is prohibited without written permission. For example, you may not post materials from the class, audio of lectures, or video of the class to personal web pages, Facebook, YouTube or any other electronic or print medium without the written consent of the instructor.

ATTENDANCE:
Attendance is mandatory. All students are required to attend all classes. If for some reason you are unable to attend a class, please send an e-mail message to Professor Cho via DCCCD netmail prior to class. Habitual tardiness and leaving early will not be tolerated and points will be deducted from the final grade. If you stay for less than 90% of the class period, then you are considered absent. Please inform Professor Cho ahead of time if you need to leave class early (for family emergency, medical/dental appointment, etc).

Three tardies are equivalent to one absence. After two absences (excused and unexcused), 2 points will be deducted from your final grade for each additional absence.

CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT:
Please have your cell phones, laptops, tablets, iPads, iPods, recorders, or other electronic devices turned off during class. I do not allow recorders in class. However, if you need to utilize a recorder for special reasons, then please meet with me. If you plan to leave class early for an excused reason or if you plan to arrive late, please let me know ahead of time. Constantly leaving class early or arriving late will result in a grade penalty or failure. During discussion, please be courteous to the speaker. Crude language or gestures will not be allowed at all times. Please do not bring food or uncapped drinks to class. This is not a class on the rhetoric of food and drinks. The aroma of food will distract hungry students and possibly a hungry instructor.

ACADEMIC HONESTY & PLAGIARISM—English Departmental Policy
Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct published in the DCCCD Catalog at http://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0506/ss/code.cfm

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on tests, plagiarism and collusion. Cheating includes copying from another student’s test or homework paper, using materials not authorized, collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test, knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, or soliciting the contents of an unadministered test, and substituting for another person to take a test. Plagiarism is the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another’s work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one’s own written work. Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements.

Academic dishonesty is a serious offense in college. You can be given a failing grade on an assignment or test, can be failed for the class, or you can even be suspended from college. In any written paper, you are guilty of the academic offense known as plagiarism if you partially or entirely copy the author’s sentences or words without quotation marks. For such an offense, a student will receive a zero on the assignment and could even receive an F for the course. You cannot mix the author’s words with your own or “plug” your synonyms into the author’s sentence structure. To prevent unintentional borrowing, resist the temptation to look at the source as you write, unless you are using a direct quote. The author’s words, phrases, sentences must be put in your words, in your way of writing. When you do this, you are demonstrating the ability of understanding and comprehension.

Please be advised that academic dishonesty and plagiarism are serious issues that may result in serious consequences. Students should be aware that they are responsible for their behavior concerning these issues. This class will adhere to the student’s “Responsibility” as detailed in the DCCCD district-wide statement and the Eastfield College Student Code of Conduct explained in the Eastfield College and district catalogs or on-line at the district website (https://www1dcccd.edu/cat0608/ss/code.cfm).

Consequences for Academic Dishonesty and/or Plagiarism: Any student in this English class found guilty of cheating on an examination or of Plagiarism (using the definitions given for both terms in the attached document) will receive one or more of the following penalties:
1. The grade of zero (0) on that particular assignment.
2. A course grade of F (depending on the severity of the student’s dishonesty or plagiarism).
3. The professor may request that the student drop the class.

Plagiarism is taking ownership of someone else’s published or unpublished work, ideas and etc.
Basically, plagiarism is WRONG. The act of Plagiarism displays academic dishonesty, and it will result in failure of the course. If you plagiarize an assignment, you will fail the assignment and fail the course. Please be careful.

INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES

DROP / WITHDRAWAL POLICY AND SEMESTER DROP DATE
If you are unable to complete this course, it is your responsibility to withdraw. Withdrawing is a formal procedure which you must initiate; your instructor cannot do it for you. You must withdraw through the Admissions/Registrar’s Office (C119) in person or by mail by TBA. You may also withdraw through eConnect. Failure to withdraw before the deadline will result in receiving a performance grade, usually a grade of “F.” You will receive a “W” (“Withdraw”) in each class dropped. A “W” shows up on your transcript BUT does not hurt your GPA.

CERTIFICATION POLICY AND CERTIFICATION DATE
You must attend and participate in your on-campus or online course(s) in order to receive federal financial aid. Your instructor is required by law to validate your attendance in your on-campus or online course in order for you to receive financial aid. You must participate in an academic related activity pertaining to the course but not limited to the following examples: initiating contact with your instructor to ask a question about the academic subject studied in the course; submitting an academic assignment; taking an exam; completing an interactive video; participating in computer-assisted instruction; attending a study group assigned by the instructor; or participating in an online discussion board about academic matters relating to the course. In an online course, simply logging in is not sufficient by itself to demonstrate academic attendance. You must demonstrate that you are participating in your online class and are engaged in an academically related activity such as in the examples described above. Failure to do so will prevent you from being certified and will affect your financial aid. The certification date for this course is TBA.

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP: THE 6 DROP RULE
For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than six courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated six non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W.” Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access: https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops.

DISTRICT THIRD ATTEMPT POLICY/ REPEATING A COURSE
Effective for Fall Semester 2005, the Dallas County Community Colleges will charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. All third and subsequent attempts of the majority of credit and Continuing Education/Workforce Training courses will result in higher tuition to be charged. Developmental Studies and some other courses will not be charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any of the Dallas County Community Colleges since the Fall 2002 semester. More information is available at: http://www.dcccd.edu/Current+Students/Paying+for+College/Third+Course+Attempt/.

FINANCIAL AID STATEMENT
If you are receiving Financial Aid grants or loans, you must begin attendance in all classes. Do not withdraw or stop attending any class without first consulting the Financial Aid Office (C237). Non-attendance or withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further financial aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Also, students who do not withdraw from a class but fail to attend or participate after the drop date are also subject to this policy, that is, may be in a position of repayment for the current semester.
TEXAS SUCCESS INITIATIVE (TSI)
The Texas Success Initiative (TSI) is a statewide program designed to ensure that students enrolled in Texas public colleges and universities have the basic academic skills needed to be successful in college-level course work. The TSI requires assessment, remediation (if necessary), and advising of students who attend a public college or university in the state of Texas. The program assesses a student's basic academic skills in reading, writing, and math. Passing the assessment is a prerequisite for enrollment in many college level classes. Students who do not meet assessment standards may complete prerequisite requirements by taking developmental courses in the deficient area and passing them with a grade of C or higher. Additional information is available at https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0506/admiss/tsi_requirements.cfm.

ADA STATEMENT—STUDENTS WITH LEARNING, MENTAL, OR PHYSICAL DISABILITIES
Students requesting accommodations due to the presence of a disability must identify themselves in a timely fashion and demonstrate/document the need for accommodation through the Disability Services Office (DSO). For information regarding the rights and responsibilities of students with disabilities, contact (DSO) at (972) 860-8348 voice/TDD.

DCCCD Office of Institutional Equity Syllabi Statement - Fall 2018

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS and PRIVACY ACT of 1974 (FERPA)

In compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), the College may release information classified as “directory information” to the general public without the written consent of the student. Directory information includes: (1) student name, (2) student address, (3) telephone numbers, (4) date and place of birth, (5) weight and height of members of athletic teams, (6) participation in officially recognized activities and sports, (7) dates of attendance, (8) educational institution most recently attended, and (9) other similar information, including major field of student and degrees and awards received. Students may protect their directory information at any time during the academic year. If no request is filed, directory information is released upon written inquiry. No telephone inquiries are acknowledged. No transcript or academic record is released without written consent from the student, except as specified by law.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY/CODE OF CONDUCT

Academic honesty is expected, and integrity is valued in the Dallas County Community College District. Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but it not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct published in the DCCCD Catalog. More information is available at https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0406/ss/code.cfm. In this course, violators of the Academic Honesty Policy will receive an “F” for the work done under academic dishonesty and cannot be made up.

PRINTING ON CAMPUS
Printing in the Learning Commons (Library and Tutoring Center) will cost 10 cents a page. You must bring a one, five, ten, or twenty dollar bill to the lab to create a print account before you can print. No change is made in the lab. Once the money is in the bill acceptor, it cannot be retrieved. No cash refunds are possible. An account stays active (and therefore, you can print) as long as the account has value (that is, has money in it).

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS/OBSERVANCES
Students who will be absent from class for the observance of a religious holiday must notify the instructor in advance. Please refer to the college catalog section on Student Responsibilities.

STUDENT E-MAIL:
Legal privacy issues prevent your instructor from discussing your work or your grades on commercial e-mail accounts. If you wish to send assignments/drafts as attachments to an e-mail (and the instructor permits it), or if you have a question about your grade, you must open a student e-mail account. The account is free. You may set it up by going to http://www.dcccd.edu/MSOffice. All communication should be conducted through your official student email account.

INCLEMENT WEATHER STATEMENT
In the event there is inclement weather that affects regular scheduled classes and events on the Eastfield College campus, the Dallas County Community College District and Eastfield College web pages will display a notification of any closings or delays. If there is no notice of changes or delays, then classes are in session as usual. You also may refer to announcements on major television and radio stations (like KEOM-FM radio 88.5) in the event that the DCCCD or Eastfield College Internet sites cannot be accessed.

OBTAINING GRADES AT THE END OF THE SEMESTER
Grade reports are no longer mailed. Convenient access is available online or by telephone. Just use your student identification number when you log in to e-Connect or call DCCCD Touch Tone Services. Web site address: http://econnect.dcccd.edu/. Telephone number: 972-613-1818.
