ENGL 1302 COMPOSITION II

Intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Emphasis on effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions.

Prerequisite: ENGL 1301 or its equivalent
LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes.

2. Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays.

3. Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.

4. Write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.

5. Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.)

CORE OBJECTIVES

Critical Thinking Skills – to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information

Communication Skills – to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication

Teamwork – to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal

Personal Responsibility Skills – to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making
Required Materials:

College dictionary and thesaurus—you may also use http://www.m-w.com (Merriam Webster’s) or http://www.oed.com/ (Oxford English Dictionary).

Attendance Policy:

This is a hybrid course; when we do not meet in class, you will work independently and often online. Each day is important for the successful completion of this course. Your virtual participation in eCampus Blackboard will be assessed and calculated in your final grade. Misses (excused or unexcused) will affect your final grade. Please speak to me concerning absences. If you are tardy, please come in quietly without disrupting the class. Save questions about what you have missed for an appropriate time. I am not responsible if there are changes to the schedule and you have missed the announcement in class, through email, on eCampus or GroupMe. Assignment omissions will affect your grade. Please note that course participation is an important component for this class. NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED.
Grading Scale:
90 to 100 = A
80 to 89 = B,
70 to 79 = C,
60 to 69 = D,
Below 60 = F

Evaluation Procedures:

* eCampus Assignments, Participation and Quizzes 10%
* Essay 1 – Short Stories 10%
* Essay 2 – The Novel 20%
* Essay 3 – Visual Rhetoric 20%
* Essay 4 – Poetry 10%
* Power Point Presentation on Poem 10%

For a complete listing of MVC and DCCCD policies, refer to http://www.tasb.org/policy/pol/private/057501/. The highlighted policies below provide partial listing off the duties, rights and responsibilities of students enrolled in MVC courses.
Institutional Policies

“Institutional Policies relating to this course can be accessed from the following link
www.mountainviewcollege.edu/syllabipolicies

Withdrawal Policy
If you are unable to complete this course, it is your responsibility to withdraw formally.
The withdrawal request must be received in the Registrar’s Office by November 15th. Failure to do so will result in your receiving a performance grade, usually an "F."

If you drop a class or withdraw from the college before the official drop/withdrawal deadline, you will receive a "W" (Withdraw) in each class dropped.

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP

For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access: https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops

Repeating This Course:
Effective for Fall Semester 2005, the Dallas County Community Colleges will charge additional tuition to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. This class may not be repeated for the third or subsequent time without paying the additional tuition. Third attempts include courses taken at any of the Dallas County Community Colleges since the Fall 2002 semester. More information is available at: https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0506/ss/oep/third_attempt.cfm.

Financial Aid:
If you are receiving financial aid grants or loans, you must begin attendance in all classes. Do not drop or stop attending any class without consulting the Financial Aid Office. Changes in your enrollment level and failing grades may require that you repay financial aid funds.

The Texas Success Initiative (TSI)
The Texas Success Initiative (TSI) is a statewide program designed to ensure that students enrolled in Texas public colleges and universities have the basic academic skills needed to be successful in college-level course work. The TSI requires assessment, remediation (if necessary), and advising of students who attend a public college or university in the state of Texas. The program assesses a student's basic academic skills in reading, writing, and math. Passing the assessment is a prerequisite for enrollment in many college level classes. Students who do not meet assessment standards may complete prerequisite requirements by taking developmental courses in the deficient area and passing them with a grade of C or higher. Additional information is available at https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0506/admiss/tsi_requirements.cfm.

Academic Honesty:
Academic honesty is expected, and integrity is valued in the Dallas County Community Colleges. Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct published in the DCCCD Catalog. More information is available at https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0406/ss/code.cfm.

Plagiarism
As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct published in the DCCCD Catalog. More information is available at https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0406/ss/code.cfm.

Scholastic dishonesty shall constitute a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, and is punishable as prescribed by DCCC Board policies. Scholastic dishonesty shall include, but not be limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion.

(Addendum from your instructor)
Students are expected to complete all assignments on their own and independent of outside help in drafting and revising each composition. Students are expected to know how to cite and document use of outside resources using the MLA Style protocols when referencing them in a written academic composition. For assistance or review, consult the research paper and documentation pages at http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/section/2/.

Plagiarism—the use of another’s work or ideas as your own—on any exercise will result in an automatic failure of the exercise. Flagrant plagiarism—the intentional copying and use of substantial amounts of someone else’s work without appropriate citations and documentation—will result in an automatic grade of “F” for the course.

Note: Your instructor uses special software designed to identify texts copied from Internet resources and their Internet addresses.
Any other form of cheating that results in a falsification of any kind in a student’s graded learning work is prohibited and will result in failure on the applicable assignment and possible failure in the course.

ADA Statement:
If you are a student with a disability and/or special needs who requires accommodations, please contact the college Disability Services Office (W145) at 214-860-8691.

Religious Holidays:
Absences for observance of a religious holy day are excused. A student whose absence is excused to observe a religious holy day is allowed to take a make-up examination or complete an assignment within a reasonable time after the absence.

Disclaimer Reserving Right to Change Syllabus:
The instructor reserves the right to amend this syllabus as necessary.

Inclement Weather:
Bad weather can occur at any time during the school year. In the event of inclement weather, tune in to local television or radio stations for a report of possible closings or delays of DCCCD locations. You may also call MVC's inclement weather hotline at 214-860-8888 or visit our college Web site – www.mountainviewcollege.edu. Mountain View College is part of the Dallas County Community College District (DCCCD) which includes seven colleges. Reports of closings may use the District (DCCCD) name instead of each individual college’s name.
