Course Description: Continued integration of critical reading and academic writing skills. Successful completion of this intervention if taught at the upper (exit) level fulfills TSI requirements for reading and/or writing.

Integrated Reading/Writing is a performance-based course designed to develop students’ critical reading and academic writing skills. The focus of the course will be on applying critical reading skills for organizing, analyzing, and retaining material and developing written work appropriate to the audience, purpose, and length of the assignment. The course integrates preparation in academic reading and writing skills. The course fulfills TSI requirements for reading and/or writing.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon the successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
1. Locate explicit textual information, draw complex inferences, and describe, analyze, and evaluate the information within and across multiple texts of varying lengths.
2. Comprehend and use vocabulary effectively in oral communication, reading, and writing.
3. Identify and analyze the audience, purpose, and message across a variety of texts.
4. Describe and apply insights gained from reading and writing a variety of texts.
5. Compose a variety of texts that demonstrate reading comprehension, clear focus, logical development of ideas, and use of appropriate language that advance the writer’s purpose.
6. Determine and use effective approaches and rhetorical strategies for given reading and writing situations.
7. Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the ideas and words of other writers in student writing using established strategies.
8. Evaluate relevance and quality of ideas and information in recognizing, formulating, and developing a claim.
9. Develop and use effective reading and revision strategies to strengthen the writer’s ability to compose college-level writing assignments.
10. Recognize and apply the conventions of Standard English in reading and writing.

Category Specifications:

Essays
DIRW 0310 students will write a minimum of four essays. Essays include in and out of class papers, prewriting, drafts, peer reviews, and rewrites. Unless otherwise directed, all essays must be in MLA style, typed, double-spaced, minimum 600 words. Only Times New Roman, 12-point font will be accepted. Students are to turn in all of the work associated with each essay. Essay grades will be affected by missing outlines, drafts, or sources, and being absent on peer review days.

Critical Reading Assignments
DIRW 0310 students will complete multiple critical reading assignments (minimum four) of varying lengths, some of which will correspond to the rhetorical modes used to write their essays. Assignment specifications will be assigned by the instructor by the appropriate date.

Final Project/Exam
DIRW 0310 students will complete a final exam consisting of three parts: a critical reading of an assigned passage, an essay utilizing MLA citation with Work Cited page using the passage as a source, and a multiple choice final exam. The critical reading and essay will be submitted together at the end of the semester. The final exam will be taken during finals week on the Read Write! website. Please note: For some DIRW 0310 sections, the Read Write! post-test will be open before the scheduled final exam date. However, students should NOT access the post-test until instructed to do so by their professor. Any student taking the post-test prior to his/her scheduled final exam time will be given an F for the post-test portion of the final exam.

Daily Grades
DIRW 0310 students will complete in-class and homework assignments, not limited to but including book work, grammar work, journaling, and
Read Write! Website

DIRW 0310 students will complete work on the Read Write! web component that accompanies their textbook. These activities correspond with the textbook chapters. Activities will be assigned by the instructor.

Attendance

DIRW 0310 students are expected to regularly attend class and to be on time and stay in class for the entire class meeting. The following attendance policy will be adhered to:

- 0-3 absences = full credit for attendance
- 4 or more absences = no credit for attendance
- Three tardies = 1 absence
- Leaving early three times = 1 absence
- Any combination of tardies/leaving early equaling three = 1 absence
- After three absences, you lose all attendance points.

A Note on Research: No research tools are to be used in DIRW 0310 for your papers. Do not use Google or any other search engine. Do not research a topic in the library. The purpose of DIRW 0310 is to develop your own ability to think, to express yourself using Standard American English, and to enlarge your vocabulary. While we will learn citation in this course, we will not learn to research or evaluate sources. Therefore, NO RESEARCH is acceptable in this course.

Late Work Policy: No late work will be accepted for this course.

Writing Expectations: Students will compose essays that adhere to grammatical and stylistic standards of academic American English and follow Modern Language Association (MLA) style. All written assignments must be double spaced and in Times New Roman, size 12 font. Papers not meeting all requirements will not be accepted.

Academic Honesty Statement: Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct published in the DCCCD Catalog at http://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0506/ss/code.cfm. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on tests, plagiarism and collusion.

- Cheating includes copying from another student’s test or homework paper, using materials not authorized, collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test, knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, or soliciting the contents of an unadministered test, and substituting for another person to take a test.
- Plagiarism is the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another’s work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one’s own written work.
- Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements.

Academic dishonesty is a serious offense in college. You can be given a failing grade on an assignment or test, can be failed for the class, or you can even be suspended from college.

Consequences for Academic Dishonesty and/or Plagiarism: Any student in this DIRW 0310 class found guilty of cheating on an examination or of plagiarism will receive one or more of the following penalties:

- The grade of zero (0) on that particular assignment.
- A course grade of F (depending on the severity of the student’s dishonesty or plagiarism).
- The instructor may submit the student’s information to the dean who may choose to suspend the student from the college and the district.
Classroom Etiquette: Your enrollment in this class indicates acceptance of the standards of conduct published in the current edition of the Eastfield College Catalog. As you are a college student, I consider you to be a responsible adult. Therefore, any disruptive behavior in the classroom is not accepted and will not be tolerated. No food or drinks are allowed in the classroom. All rules, regulations, and guidelines as listed and explained in the Eastfield College, Dallas County Community Colleges Catalog, (Code of Student Conduct) will be followed. It is important that you read the Code of Student Conduct carefully. Some specific expectations of you as a student are that you:

- Be on time for class and stay the entire class meeting.
- Turn off/silence cell phones and other electronic devices upon entering the classroom.
- Help maintain a classroom atmosphere in which everyone can work without disturbance.
- Come prepared for each class by having completed assignments.
- Bring required texts and other materials to each class period.
- Notify the instructor prior to a necessary absence.
- Will not bring food or drinks into the classroom.
- Will use respectful verbal and body language toward all persons in the classroom.
- Will use classroom computers and printers for DIRW 0310 assignments ONLY.

Email Etiquette: Emails are a constant in the academic and professional worlds. Therefore, it is important that you practice proper email etiquette at all times. When emailing the professor, you are expected to:

- Use your DCCCD student netmail account for emails relating to this course.
- Begin with a greeting or salutation. This is both professional and courteous.
- Use Standard American English and proper grammar, punctuation, and spelling.
- All subject lines for this class should include your name and the course level and section, e.g. John Smith DIRW 0310-41XXX.
- Never type in all uppercase letters.
- Use courteous language and tone; write professionally—all college writing is business formal, not something you send to friends or family.
- Sign your name at the bottom of the email. Again, this is both professional and courteous.
- Emails concerning course grades will not be responded to unless the student has emailed the instructor from a DCCCD student account.

Responsibility: Each student shall be charged with notice and knowledge of the contents and provisions of the District’s policies, procedures, and regulations concerning student conduct. All students shall obey the law, show respect for properly constituted authority, and observe correct standards of conduct

Obtaining Final Course Grades Using eConnect
Final Grade Reports are no longer mailed. Convenient access is available online at www.econnect.dcccd.edu. Use your identification number when you log onto eConnect, an online system developed by the DCCCD to provide you with timely information regarding your college record. Your grades will also be printed on your Student Advising Report, which is available in the Admissions Office.

Texas Success Initiative: The Texas Success Initiative (TSI) is a statewide program designed to ensure that students enrolled in Texas public colleges and universities have the basic academic skills needed to be successful in college-level coursework. The TSI requires assessment, remediation (if necessary), and advising of students who attend a public college or university in the state of Texas. The program assesses a student’s basic academic skills in reading, writing, and math. Passing the assessment is a prerequisite for enrollment in many college-level classes, such as English 1301/1302, History 1301/1302, and Math 1414. Students who do not meet assessment standards may complete prerequisites by taking developmental courses in the deficient area and passing them with a grade of C or higher. In some cases, retesting will also be required. It is up to each student to be aware and informed about requirements that are subject to change. Additional information is available from the TSI Office. https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat00910/admiss/tsi.cfm?loc=4

Eastfield College Email Policy: Legal privacy issues prevent your instructor from discussing your work or your grades on commercial e-mail accounts. If you wish to send assignments/drafts as attachments to an e-mail (and the instructor permits it), or if you have a question about your grade, you must open a student e-mail account. The account is free. You may set it up by going to http://www.dcccd.edu/MSOffice. All communication should be conducted through your official student email account.

NOTE: A student email address is required in this class.

Attendance Policy: You are expected to regularly attend all classes in which you are enrolled. Students have the responsibility to attend class and to consult with the instructor when an absence occurs. (Eastfield College, Dallas County Community Colleges Catalog)

If a student is unable to complete a course (or courses) in which he/she is registered, it is the responsibility of the student to withdraw from the course by the appropriate date. If a student does not withdraw, he/she will receive a performance-based grade, usually a grade of “F”.

Students who are absent from class for the observance of a religious holiday may take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence if, not later than the 15th day of the semester, the student notified the instructor(s) that the student would be absent for a religious holiday. Sec. 51.911 TX Educ. Code.

Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate after the drop date are also subject to this policy.
Certification: You must attend and participate in your on-campus or online course(s) in order to receive federal financial aid. Your instructor is required by law to validate your attendance in your on-campus or online course in order for you to receive financial aid. You must participate in an academic related activity pertaining to the course but not limited to the following examples: initiating contact with your instructor to ask a question about the academic subject studied in the course; submitting an academic assignment; taking an exam; completing an interactive video; participating in computer-assisted instruction; attending a study group assigned by the instructor; or participating in an online discussion board about academic matters relating to the course. In an online course, simply logging in is not sufficient by itself to demonstrate academic attendance. You must demonstrate that you are participating in your online class and are engaged in an academically related activity such as in the examples described above. Failure to do so will prevent you from being certified and will affect your financial aid.

Repeating This Course: (Third Attempt to Enroll in a Course): Effective for Fall Semester 2005, the Dallas County Community Colleges will charge additional tuition to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. All third and subsequent attempts of the majority of credit and Continuing Education/Workforce Training courses will result in additional tuition charges. Developmental Studies and some other courses will not be charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any of the Dallas County Community Colleges since the fall 2002 Semester. See Third Attempt to Enroll in a Course at: http://www.dcccd.edu/thirdcourseattempt/.

Academic Honesty Policy/Code of Conduct: Academic honesty is expected, and integrity is valued in the Dallas County Community College District. Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but it not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct published in the DCCCD Catalog. More information is available at https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0406/ss/code.cfm. In this course, violators of the Academic Honesty Policy will receive an “F” for the work done under academic dishonesty and cannot be made up.

Food and Drink Policy: Food, drinks, and tobacco products are prohibited in Eastfield College classrooms.

DCCCD OIE Faculty Syllabi Statement-Fall 2016: The Office of Institutional Equity, in coordination with DCCCD colleges, has the primary responsibility for reviewing, updating and implementing compliance policies and procedures. The Institutional Equity and Compliance Officer and the Office of Institutional Equity will ensure compliance with College District policies, federal and state laws related to sexual assault, Title IX, Title II (Americans with Disabilities Act) and the Military Veterans Full Employment Act to support diversity and inclusion.

Students with Disabilities: If you are a student with a disability and/or special needs, or if you think you may have a disability, please contact the college Disability Services Office (DSO). Please note that all communication with DSO is confidential. If you are eligible for accommodations, please provide or request that the DSO send your accommodation letter to me as soon as possible (students are encouraged to contact DSO at the beginning of the semester). For more information regarding the College Disability Services Office, please visit the Student Services website: dcccd.edu/DSO Offices or contact DCCCD Office of Institutional Equity at (214) 378-1633.

A Note on Harassment, Discrimination, and Sexual Misconduct: We are committed to assure all community members learn and work in a welcoming and inclusive environment. Title VII, Title IX and DCCCD policy prohibit harassment, discrimination and sexual misconduct. If you encounter harassment, sexual misconduct (sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, relationship violence, stalking), retaliation or discrimination based on race, color, religion, age, national origin, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and/or gender expression, please contact your College Title IX Coordinator or the Office of Institutional Equity. We treat this information with the greatest degree of confidentiality possible while also ensuring student welfare and college safety.

We are concerned about the well-being and development of our students, and are available to discuss any concerns. There are both confidential and non-confidential resources and reporting options available to you. If students wish to keep the information confidential, please contact the college Counseling or Student Health Services. As required by DCCCD policy, incidents of discrimination and/or sexual misconduct shared with faculty will be reported to the College Title IX Coordinator or District Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator will contact the student and determine if further investigation is needed. For more information about policies, resources or reporting options, please contact your college Title IX Coordinator or visit www.dcccd.edu/titleIX.

Religious Holidays:
Absences for observance of a religious holy day are excused. A student whose absence is excused to observe a religious holy day is allowed to contract with the instructor to take a make-up examination or complete an assignment within a reasonable time after the absence.

Withdrawal Policy:
If you are unable to complete this course, it is your responsibility to withdraw formally. The withdrawal request must be received in the Registrar’s Office by Thursday, November 9. Failure to do so will result in your receiving a performance grade, usually an “F.” If you drop a class or withdraw from the college before the official drop/withdrawal deadline, you will receive a “W” (Withdraw) in each class dropped. For more information about drop deadlines, refer to the current printed Credit Class Schedule, contact the Admissions/Registrar’s Office at 972-860-7167 (Room C119), or contact the division office.

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP:
For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access:
https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA): In compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), the College may release information classified as “directory information” to the general public without the written consent of the student. Directory information includes:
(1) student name, (2) student address, (3) telephone numbers, (4) date and place of birth, (5) weight and height of members of athletic teams, (6) participation in officially recognized activities and sports, (7) dates of attendance, (8) educational institution most recently attended, and (9) other similar information, including major field of student and degrees and awards received. Students may protect their directory information at any time during the academic year. If no request is filed, directory information is released upon written inquiry. No telephone inquiries are acknowledged. No transcript or academic record is released without written consent from the student, except as specified by law.
