Some last thoughts.....I truly enjoy the teaching of history and I hope this comes across in my teaching style. Though you will of course have to know some names, dates, and places, the VAST majority of what I am concerned with is that you understand the REASONS and CONSEQUENCES of various events in history.
The causes of events are ever more interesting than the events themselves. Marcus Tullius Cicero (106-43 BC) Writer, politician and great Roman orator.

- "If you are neutral in situations of injustice, you have chosen the side of the oppressor." - Desmond Tutu

"Silence becomes cowardice when occasion demands speaking out the whole truth and acting accordingly." - Mahatma Gandhi
