Course Assignments/Project……………………………………………………….60%

The course assignments are divided into three modules with specific due dates for each module. The assignments are based on the required textbook. The required readings which correlate with the specific assignments are identified within each module. In general, assignments may involve going to various educational facilities to observe, interview, and/or conduct classroom activities. The individual educational facility will notify students if a criminal background is required to conduct interviews, observations, or classroom activities.

The course may require a project directly related to the course content.

Students are required to read the entire assigned textbook(s).

Final Exam……………………………………………………………………………..20%

The final exam is an open book exam and is based on the required textbook. Although the final exam is untimed, there is a deadline date for completing the exam.

Discussion Board/Class Participation…………………………………………..20%

Students are required to participate in the discussion board questions directly related to the course content. A minimum of 3 detailed posting on three different dates are required for each discussion question. Weekly postings will help meet this requirement. In addition, students are required to reference the textbook and/or related articles in each posting. A different reference source must be used for each posting. The purpose of the discussion board is to development professional opinions supported by reference source(s). If you are taking the course as lecture-based, your class participation/attendance will take the place of the discussion board.

Incomplete grades (“I”) will not be given. Your work will be graded based on what has been turned in by the due dates. Requests for extensions must be made to the instructor prior to the due date and will only be considered for officially documented extenuating circumstances (death, hospitalization, etc). Official documentation might include admission/discharge paperwork from a hospital stay, program from a funeral out of town, or a physicians statement concerning a condition that would have prevented you from completing/submitting your work on time. Failure to get pre-approval for an extension will result in reducing late work grades one letter grade for each day late. Each pre-approved assignment that you submit late must have attached a copy of the official documentation for the extenuating circumstance. Late assignments will not be accepted at the final submission date at the end of the semester.

Criminal Backgrounds

Please be advised that there are certain felony convictions in the Texas Penal Code that prohibit individuals from pursuing careers working with children and being present in a school or child care center. These include but are not limited to:

- Offenses against a person or family also including robbery and stalking
- Physical Abuse
- Sexual Abuse also including criminal solicitation of a minor, failure to stop or report aggravated sexual assault of a child, and public indecency
- Emotional Abuse
- Neglect

If you think you might have a felony conviction that might place you at risk and are seeking one of the careers working with children or are enrolled in a Child Development/Early Childhood Education or Teacher Education course beginning with CDEC, TECA, or EDUC (not including EDUC 1300), you should make an appointment immediately with Nancy Beaver or Susan Wyatt (advisors for these programs) to discuss alternative careers and steps to drop the class. Call 972-860-7195 to schedule the appointment.

EL Centro College Policies

Attendance Policy:
You are expected to attend class each schedule class date if you are in a lecture-based course. You are also expected to be on time and remain for the entire class. A portion of your grade is class participation. If you are not present, you cannot participate and your grade will be affected. Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate after the drop date are also subject to this policy.

Classroom Etiquette
You are expected to be courteous with your classmates and instructor during class. Please place your cell phones on silent or vibrate and leave the room if you must answer the call. You will still be responsible for what goes on during class even if you must leave the room. You need to ask a classmate after class what you missed. Courteous behavior also includes the people and children at your worksite. Each worksite may have varied rules related to behavior during your work-time and you must follow those rules.

Obtaining Final Course Grades Using eConnect
Final Grade Reports are no longer mailed. Convenient access is available online at www.econnect.dcccd.edu. Use your identification number when you log onto eConnect, an online system developed by the DCCCD to provide you with timely information regarding your college record. Your grades will also be printed on your Student Advising Report, which is available in the Admissions Office.

Course Certification
You must attend and participate in your online course(s) in order to receive federal financial aid. Your instructor is required by law to validate your attendance in your online course in order for you to receive financial aid. You must participate in an academic related activity pertaining to the course but not limited to the following examples: submitting an academic assignment; taking an exam; completing an interactive video assignment; or participating in an online discussion board about academic matters relating to the course. In an online course, simple login is not sufficient by itself to demonstrate academic attendance. A student introduction is not adequate to meet the criteria for certification. You must demonstrate that you are participating in your online class and are engaged in an academically related activity such as in the examples described above. Failure to do so will prevent you from being certified and will affect your financial aid.

Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. Texas Success Initiative

The Texas Success Initiative (TSI) is a statewide program designed to ensure that students enrolled in Texas public colleges and universities have the basic academic skills needed to be successful in college-level course work. The TSI requires assessment, remediation (if necessary), and advising of students who attend a public college or university in the state of Texas. The program assesses a student’s basic academic skills in reading, writing, and math. Passing the assessment is a prerequisite for enrollment in many college-level classes such as English 1301/1302, History 1301/1302, Math 1414, etc. Students who do not meet assessment standards may complete prerequisite requirements by taking developmental courses in the deficit area and passing them with a grade of C or higher. In some cases retesting will also be required. It is up to each student to be aware and informed about requirements that are subject to change.

Additional information is available from the TSI Office.  https://www1.dcccd.edu/cat0910/admiss/tsi.cfm?loc=4
