Student Learning Outcomes
After successful completion of this course the student should be able to: Increasing Writing Skills
1) recognize that writing is a process involving generating ideas, drafting, revising, and editing, and to use these elements of the writing process appropriately.
2) set appropriate priorities at each point in the writing process.
3) adapt your writing process to different time constraints, such as a class period, several weeks, or a semester.
4) write for a variety of audiences, not just your instructor.
5) adapt your language, sentence structure, and organization to fit the audience, purpose, and topic of the writing task.
6) write for a variety of purposes.
7) focus on a central idea that controls and unifies the whole piece of writing.
8) support your ideas with details (illustrations, examples, descriptions) that will make them clear to your readers.
9) demonstrate a sense of personal voice in your own writing and the ability to vary it accordingly.
10) produce effective and mature papers of several paragraphs.

Increasing Reading Skills
1) identify the main ideas and supporting details in variety of reading selections, ranging from student to professional works.
2) analyze how the work of student and professional writers achieves the writer’s purpose.
3) produce writing based upon your synthesis of written material with your own knowledge and opinions.

Introducing Research Skills
1) locate and evaluate sources for writing tasks.
2) demonstrate preliminary research skills: summarize, paraphrase, synthesize, and document information.

Building Analytical Thinking Skills
1) demonstrate maturity of thought by analyzing, questioning, and reflecting on ideas.
2) understand the relationship between oral and written communication.

Improving Attitudes towards Communications Skills
1) develop confidence in yourself as a writer.
2) understand the value of writing in your life as a way to learn, record, communicate, and understand.
3) have more awareness of your own writing process.
