Handout available online
CRITIQUE—200 points

Events must occur during the semester in which a student is enrolled. You are required to attend one (1) outside events in order to write critiques explained in the section below:

LIVE THEATRE, DANCE, OPERA, SYMPHONY OR JAZZ PERFORMANCE.
PROOF OF ATTENDANCE REQUIRED

In order for the theatre dance, opera, symphony OR jazz critique to receive full credit, they must occur within the student’s enrolled semester and have at least 750 words (approx. 4-5 pages).

This critique will require the student to attend a live event. Written critiques WILL NOT be accepted on reproductions from books, the Web, prints or rented or owned videos etc. The assignment require that you participate with a genuine work of art, so please plan accordingly and to not procrastinate.

Correct spelling, punctuation and grammar are required as are paragraph construction, content and overall organization. Please contact the Writing Center if you need help in these areas.

SIX-WORD STORY 130 points

100 points for the video
Peer Review 30 points (10 points for each review)
This is an activity that brings the writing process to life with digital storytelling. A simple six-word story, created as a video with six unique camera shots, allows students the ability to tell a powerful visual story about the arts in their lives. It was inspired by Ernest Hemingway’s famous challenge and first six-word story, “For sale: baby shoes, never worn.” Handout available online.

QUIZZES- 140 points

Fourteen quizzes are required for this semester. Each set of quizzes will help you study for each of the three exams.

DISCUSSION BOARD: IS 100 POINTS OF YOUR FINAL GRADE
5 Discussion Boards 20 points each
Post to the discussion board before you come to class. We will discuss your post in class. If you have not posted to the discussion board before you come to class you will lose the discussion board points and your class participation points.

EXTRA CREDIT

There is on extra credit in this class. There are 130 extra points built into the structure of the course. If you want to earn extra points complete all the assignments in this course.
Discipline/ Course/ Department/Policies

Student Responsibilities and Classroom Etiquette and Behavior Code:

If a student does not take an exam at the assigned time one-letter grade is deducted, if the instructor allows a makeup test. Students must make a written request for a makeup test within one week of missing the exam.

ATTENDANCE

Just as in a face-to-face course, attending your online course is important. In fact, it may be even more important. In a face-to-face course, sometimes a student is physically there, but mentally "somewhere else." In an online course, there is little social pressure to be there or pretend to be there, but if you do not visit the course site regularly, you will not get much from the course and will find it difficult to get a good grade.

CHECK THE COURSE SITE REGULARLY

Even if you don’t have specific assignments to complete, check the course site and your email regularly. Your instructor will make announcements, new postings will appear in discussion forums, and other plans may undergo subtle changes. Regular checks will help you remember all that you need to get done.

YOUR INSTRUCTOR CAN TELL IF YOU ARE VISITING THE COURSE SITE

There are tools in the eCampus course that allows your instructor to get general statistics about how often you visit the course site. Sometimes, they can even tell you have visited specific parts.

YOU WILL HAVE TO SHOW YOUR INSTRUCTOR THE QUALITY OF YOUR PARTICIPATION

Statistical tools in Blackboard won't let your instructor know if you understand what you read, if you enjoy or dislike aspects of the course, or if you are succeeding as a student. That is up to you. Your assignments, postings, and instructor communication will show the quality of your work.

YOU ARE EXPECTED TO COMMUNICATION WITH BOTH THE INSTRUCTOR AND YOUR CLASSMATES

Don't wait to be asked to communicate. Send your instructor questions. Post messages to other students. Ask questions and share your ideas.

LATE TURN IN:

The online modules close on a specific date and will not re-open once closed. Please check the dates on your calendar.

INSTRUCTORS RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The instructor reserves the right to establish the guidelines for the ONLINE setting. The instructor reserves the right to maintain ONLINE decorum and to remove from class anyone who behaves in a manner that disturbs the instruction process.

The instructor is charged by the college with the responsibility for maintain the online environment and the instructor's decision is final. DROP POLICY

If you are unable to complete this course, you must officially withdraw by: OCTOBER 3, 2019.
Withdrawing is a formal procedure which you must initiate; your instructor cannot do it for you. All Dallas County Community Colleges charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third time for a course. This rule applies to the majority of credit and Continuing Education / Workforce Training courses. Developmental Studies and some other courses are not charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any DCCCD college since the fall 2002 semester. For further information, go online to:
http://www.DCCCD.edu/thirdcourseattempt.

HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION, AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

We are committed to assure all community members learn and work in a welcoming and inclusive environment. Title VII, Title IX and DCCCD policy prohibit harassment, discrimination and sexual misconduct. If you encounter harassment, sexual misconduct (sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, relationship violence) or retaliation or discrimination based on race, color, religion, age, national origin, disability, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy, parenting, gender identity and/or gender expression, please contact your college Title IX coordinator or the Office of Institutional Equity. We treat this information with the greatest degree of confidentiality possible while also ensuring student welfare and college safety.

We are concerned about the well-being and development of our students and are available to discuss any concerns. There are both confidential and non-confidential resources and reporting options available to you. If you wish to keep the information confidential, please contact college Counseling or Student Health Services. As required by DCCCD policy, incidents of discrimination and/or sexual misconduct shared with faculty will be reported to the college Title IX coordinator or district Title IX coordinator. The Title IX coordinator will contact you and determine if further investigation is needed. For more information about policies, resources or reporting options, please contact your college Title IX coordinator or visit dcccd.edu/TitleIX.

Each college within DCCCD has a designated Title IX coordinator.

Students have the right to expect
- The professor will come to class prepared to present lectures or learning activities designed to help students learn the material.
- The professor will provide detailed instructions for all assignments.
- The class will begin and end on time.
- The professor will have individual visits with each student.
- The professor will respond respectfully to student comments and questions.
- The professor will attempt to clarify concepts or assignments that students are having difficulty understanding, either during class or during office hours.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area:
- I will provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and
- I will communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand the importance of clear, timely communication with my students. In order to maintain sufficient communication:
- I will provide my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;
- I will respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday;
- I will notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of during the time I am unavailable.
- Exams will accurately reflect the knowledge and skills taught during class time, the book, and in lecture notes.

As a professor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress:
- I will post grades for discussion postings within one week of the discussion thread closing.
- I will provide grades for major assignments within 2 weeks of the due date or at least 3 days before the next major assignment is due, whichever comes first.
- Grading will be fair and impartial to all students and students will be able to appeal any grades they feel are unfair or inappropriate.
- The professor will make updated grades available throughout the semester.

The professor has the right to expect
As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to understand course material and requirements and to keep up with the course calendar. While my instructor is available for help and clarification:
- I will seek out help from my instructor and/or from tutors, or Writing Center;
- I will ask questions if I do not understand; and
- I will access my course and/or email several times during the week to keep up with assignments and announcements.
- Students will speak respectfully to each other and to the professor.
- Students will come to class on time and not leave early unless they have previously informed the professor that they need to leave.
- I understand I need the textbook to complete the class
- Students will follow the schedule, listen to announcements, and be prepared for assignments and exams.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate quickly with the instructor any issue or emergency that will impact my involvement with or performance in the class. This includes, but is not limited to
- getting “kicked off” of the system during tests or quizzes;
- having trouble submitting assignments; and
- dealing with a traumatic personal event.

As a student, I understand that I am responsible for keeping up with the course. To help with this:
- I will identify alternative computer and internet access in case my primary computer crashes or my internet service is unavailable;
- I will recognize that the college provides free wi-fi and computer labs during regular campus hours to help me with accessing my course; and, understand that my instructor does not have to accept my technical issues as a legitimate reason for late or missing work if my equipment or service is unreliable.
- Students will take responsibility for learning the material by attending class, listening to online lectures, bringing reading note card for each chapter, reading lecture notes, and studying for exams.

I understand that my learning process demands my pro-active involvement.
- Assignments are due as announced, unless otherwise altered by the professor.
- Participation cards are due in class with every chapter
- Late work will be marked down 10% for each session past due date.
- Work, generally, is to be typed and in MLA format
- Quizzes exams, and assignments cannot be made up.
- All written work must be submitted to www.turnitin.com. Papers delivered to her email are not acceptable unless instructed.
- You are responsible for dropping the class for a “W” so as not to earn an “F”.

Students will not copy answers from other students, turn in plagiarized writing assignments, or cheat in any other way.
I understand this is a Summer I course and I have 5 weeks to complete this course.
