Academic Advising and Degree Planning

At Richland College, our Advising team works side by side with you in (1) picking the right major/program, (2) enrolling in the right classes and (3) finishing on time. Degree planning is critical as you prepare to be successful in the workforce and/or to transfer to other institutions.

If you are a first-time-in-college student, you are required to meet with an advisor and are encouraged to file a degree plan. If you are a continuing student, you are also encouraged to meet with available advisors, faculty and program coordinators to ensure your continued success in maintaining a quality educational pathway.

- Visit the Richland College Advising webpage for more information.
• Visit the district website Advising Center page for contact information for all college advising offices.

Tutoring
All students are eligible for free, convenient tutoring in a wide range of subjects.
• Visit the Richland College Tutoring webpage for more information.
• Visit the district website Tutoring page for contact information for all college tutoring services.

Students With Disabilities
If you are a student with a disability and/or special needs who requires accommodations, please contact the Disability Services Office (DSO) at Richland College. If you are eligible for accommodations, please contact DSO to send your accommodation request to your instructor, preferably at the start of the semester or program. Please note that all communication with DSO is confidential. Visit the Disability Services webpage for more information about disability services available across the district or contact the DCCCD Office of Institutional Equity at 214-378-1633.

Cheating, Plagiarism and Collusion
Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct and Hazing. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism and collusion. Cheating includes copying from another student’s test or homework paper; using materials not authorized; collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test; knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing or soliciting (asking for) the contents of an un-administered test; and substituting for another person to take a test. Plagiarism is the appropriating (taking in a way that is illegal or unfair), buying, receiving as a gift or obtaining by any means another’s work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one’s own written work. Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements. Academic dishonesty is a serious offense in college. You can be given a failing grade on an assignment or test, can be failed for the class or you can even be suspended from college. Your enrollment indicates acceptance of the DCCCD Code of Student Conduct and Hazing.
