PERFORMANCE ETIQUETTE:
Because you represent Richland College to our guest performers, your conduct during performances is of utmost importance. To make this an enjoyable experience for everyone, please adhere to the following guidelines:

1) Please arrive early so that our performances can begin promptly at 12:30pm. Entering late can disturb both the performers and the audience. Do not enter the hall while a piece is in progress. Seating will resume at the conclusion of the first piece.
2) Please silence cell phones.
3) Please refrain from flash photography while a performance is in progress. If you wish to take pictures, do so while performers are not playing.
4) Please avoid conversation during performances. Bring a pencil and write down any thoughts you may wish to share, but do so quietly and discreetly.
5) Please show courtesy and enthusiasm for all of our performers.
6) Please refrain from applause during multi-movement works and hold your applause until the end of the piece.

CELL PHONE/FOOD & DRINK POLICY:
Please silence all cell phones prior to rehearsal. The use of cell phones during class will not be tolerated. Food and all drink with the exception of water should never be brought into the rehearsal.
