Attendance Policy:

Attendance is crucial to achieving success in this class. You need to be here every single day on time for maximum achievement. Attendance will be taken every class period and used to calculate a portion of your grade.

_Last day to withdraw is 4/17th_

Method of Evaluation:

Group and individual critiques will be the basis for grading and evaluation of the work produced. Informal critiques will be held throughout the semester, with formal critiques at mid-term and for the final. Craftsmanship, productivity, and creativity will all be considered. There will be both assigned and open-ended projects. For beginners, there will be quizzes over how clay is made and turned into ceramic ware, and the glazing process. Participation is an important part of your grade. Please see separate “assignments” sheet for more info.
