Instructor Information:
Instructor: Greg Milano
Email: gmilano@dcccd.edu
Cell: 214 563 3390

There will be some classes that meet at my studio. I will give you plenty of notice for the weeks we meet there.

Course Information:
Course title: Photo Business Course number: COMM
Credit hours: 3 / CEUs
Course description: An introduction to the fundamental principles and practices common to the business of photography.

Recommended Materials:
1. Idea Book. Each student will be required to keep a notebook with weekly notes, assignment diagrams, collected samples, and sketches. This book must be brought to class each week.
Course Objectives: To provide students with a basic understanding of the unique environment and conditions involved with a career in photography. Students will be provided the fundamentals of pricing work, copyright, usage, marketing, self promotion, as well as other careers connected to the field of photography. Numerous individuals from related professions as well as working photographers will be contributing to the class throughout the semester. Students will learn to analyze and dialogue critically, the work of themselves and others.

Discipline/ Course/ Department/ Policies:

1. Assignments must be turned in on time – that is, at the beginning of a critique or by a specific deadline, or, an irreversible grade of 0 may be recorded for that assignment. Unexcused absences do not excuse a late assignment. Should a reason arise that an assignment cannot be turned in on time, notice should be given to the instructor at least one week in advance. This notice does not mean that an extension will be given, but it will be taken into consideration depending upon the circumstances.

2. Absences will factor into the final grade in a way determined by the individual instructor: see appendix A. If you find that you must miss a class you must contact the instructor prior to class for it to be considered “excused”. One unexcused absence will result in the lowering of a students final grade by one letter.

3. Plagiarism, or illegal use of copyrighted material will not be tolerated and may be punishable by dismissal from class, and possible suspension from college.

This must occur before the last official day of the semester.

DROP POLICY

If you are unable to complete this course, you must officially withdraw by: Thursday, November 14, 2013. Withdrawing is a formal procedure which you must initiate; your instructor cannot do it for you. All Dallas County Community Colleges charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third time for a course. This rule applies to the majority of credit and Continuing Education/Workforce Training courses. Developmental Studies and some other courses are not charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any DCCCD college since the fall 2002 semester. For further information, go online to: http://www.DCCCD.edu/thirdcourseattempt.

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP

For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access: https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops.

FINANCIAL AID STATEMENT

Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate are also subject to this policy.
To apply for financial aid in the DCCCD, students must complete FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) on the web at:

http://www.fafsa.ed.gov

- 1800 – 2000 points = A
- 1600 – 1799 points = B

- 1200 – 1399 points = D
- 0 - 1199 points =

(For CE Students: a certificate of completion will be awarded to any student obtaining 1400 points or more.)

EVALUATION PROCEDURES:

NO LATE WORK ALLOWED. IF YOU KNOW YOU WILL BE OUT OF TOWN DUE TO YOUR JOB, TURN IN THE ASSIGNMENT A WEEK IN ADVANCE PRIOR TO YOUR ABSENCE. (this will be done on a case by case basis-for rare occasions). ARRIVING LATE TO CRITIQUES (FROM THE PRINT LAB) IS NOT AN EXCUSE FOR TARDINESS, THIS CAN RESULT IN THE DEDUCTION OF POINTS FOR THE ASSIGNMENT.

Print assignments will be graded in open class critiques, featuring participation by the entire class and instructor. Prints will be graded on the following criteria:

- Redo = If a print fails to meet technical requirements, a grade of “R” will be assigned. An “R” grade means that the student has until the last regular class day of the term to re-submit the assignment for a score-able grade.

- “C” – 70% - 79% of assignment value. A “C” grade means that the photo meets the basic technical requirements for the assignment but offers little else.

- “B” – 80%- 89% of assignment value. A “B” grade means that the assignment meets the technical requirements and offers the viewer a valuable experience. A “near-publishable”, or “good” photo.

- “A” – 90%-100% of assignment value. An “A” grade means that the assignment meets all technical expectations in an interesting and valuable image. A “publishable”, or “excellent” image.

Class participation grades will be determined by attendance and participation in class.

Grades - Grading will be based on completion of assignments, notebooks, midterm, and final project. Work will be due the date given when originally assigned. Any assignment not handed in on the due date will be reduced 1 letter grade for every week it is late. A note book will be required to be brought to class each week. This notebook will include all class discussions, guest speakers, shooting diagrams, etc. Please do not take the notebook lightly. I will be checking them throughout the semester. The notebook will count towards your final grade.
Assignments - There will be some shooting assignments this semester mostly dealing with self promotion. No stock photography or images from previous photo shoot/assignments will be allowed. If it comes to my attention that stock or previous images have been used, that individual will fail the class. No Questions!!! All writing assignments will be double spaced in Times Roman 12pt. All students will be required to write a 2 page typewritten paper after each guest speaker. These papers will be due the next time the class meets. I don't want it emailed to me. Hand me the paper!!! With these papers, I want you to explain how you feel this particular professional and his or her craft affect the industry. I don't want a verbatim of what the speaker had to say. I want your interpretation. What impact did their discussion have on you as someone entering the business. You will be given a number of terms at the end of class each week. You will be required to turn in typed definitions each week for a grade. These definitions must remain in your notebook at all times.
