Welcome to the World Literature 2332 course here at Eastfield College. The focus of this course is Ancient World Literature and the introducing students to early literature that has, and continues to, influence Western Literary traditions. During this course students will be given the opportunity to venture into the murky waters of individuality, mortality and conflict. This course is a journey to understanding and appreciating not only the literature of the World but also the culture that has determined Western cultural identities.

The Textbook for this course is available for free within the course on eCampus.

Course Prerequisites
English 1301, English 1302 and have met Texas Success Initiative (TSI) standards in Reading and Writing.

ENGL 2332 World Literature I
A survey of world literature from the ancient world through the sixteenth century. Students will study works of prose, poetry, drama, and fiction in relation to their historical and cultural contexts. Texts will be selected from a diverse group of authors and traditions.

Student Learning Outcomes
Upon successful completion of this course, students will:
1. Identify key ideas, representative authors and works, significant historical or cultural events, and characteristic perspectives or attitudes expressed in the literature of different periods or regions.
2. Analyze literary works as expressions of individual or communal values within the social, political, cultural, or religious contexts of different literary periods.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of the development of characteristic forms or styles of expression during different historical periods or in different regions.
4. Articulate the aesthetic principles that guide the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
5. Write research-based critical papers about the assigned readings in clear and grammatically correct prose, using various critical approaches to literature.

Core Objectives:
- Critical Thinking - to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
- Communication - to include effective development, interpretation, and expression of idea through written, oral, and visual communication.
- Teamwork - to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
- Personal Responsibility - to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Core Objective Development Statements:

ENGL 2332 develops Critical Thinking and Communication by requiring students to read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts in essays, as well as other possible projects, produced both in and out of class.

ENGL 2332 develops Teamwork by requiring students to participate in peer editing and/or team research and project creation.

ENGL 2332 develops Personal Responsibility by requiring students to attend scheduled conferences on time and prepared; and by submitting work on time and in the manner determined by the instructor (electronic, Safe Assign, hard copies).

Method of Evaluation:

- Discussion Boards 200 Points
- 6 Journals 300 Points (50 Points each)
