LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Students are required to do the reading, assignment-quizzes, tests, and papers related to the class. ALL DUE DATES ARE LISTED IN THE WHAT TO DO LIST AND UNDER CRITICAL DATES. Be certain you know your correct section number because many sections use this site, but not all students are enrolled in section 2X426.

EVALUATION TECHNIQUES

LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

HANDWRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
IF YOU EXCEED THE TIME LIMIT ON A TEST, YOUR INSTRUCTOR RESERVES THE RIGHT NOT TO ACCEPT YOUR GRADE FOR IT.

All class work, projects and exams are designed to measure student progress toward the performance objectives. Categories are as follows:

All the assignments together are worth 27% of the final course grade. (7 practice tests at 3% each plus Ch. 8 practice test at 6%) The assignments are related to the information posted on the web site and provided in the textbook. They are designed to prepare the student for the two tests. They are assignment- quizzes that you may do over and over again until you get the grade you want.

The two tests are worth 10% each and together are worth 20% of the final course grade. There is one test that covers Chapters 1-4 and the other test covers Chapters 5-8. They are related to the information posted on the web site and provided in the textbook.

The research paper is worth 25% of the final course grade. It is an 800-word (minimum) paper that is over a place of worship that was built during the time period we cover, prehistoric to 1400 C.E. Students pick the topic with approval needed from the instructor. MLA formatting and citation is required. See the Library homepage for help with citation: http://www.brookhavencollege.edu/library/.

The reflection paper is worth 28% of the final course grade. It is a 750-word paper that explains, from the student’s perspective, how historical and social contexts have helped to shape human belief systems and values.

VERY IMPORTANT: When viewing your grades under TOOLS, look at % weighted total grade rather than the points.

TESTS: Each test has a password. Email your instructor when you are ready to test in order to get it unless it has already been posted. The best way to review for the test is to read the book and lectures and be able to access the info easily. The assignments also are good to review. These are timed tests, and you must submit within the time limit, 2 hours. Do not leave the open window when working on a test. This can cause submission of an incomplete test. You do not want that to happen.

COURSE GRADE EQUIVALENCIES:
A = 100-90%
B = 89-80%
C = 79-70%
D = 69-60%
F = 59-0%

INSTRUCTOR'S RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The instructor reserves the right to establish the guidelines for the ONLINE setting. The instructor reserves the right to maintain ONLINE decorum and to remove from class anyone who behaves in a manner that disturbs the instruction process.

The instructor is charged by the college with the responsibility for maintain the online environment and the instructor's decision is final. Any student having problems with a course should consult the instructor. Rudeness, disrupting the class, or disrespecting other students or the instructor will result in the student being removed from the online class. If that occurs, the student will be required to have a personal conference with the instructor. You are expected to follow the Student Code of Conduct. See ACADEMIC HONESTY below.

The instructor reserves the right to amend this syllabus as necessary.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Just as in a face-to-face course, attending your online course is important. In fact, it may be even more important. In a face-to-face course, sometimes a student is physically there, but mentally "somewhere else." In an online course, there is little social pressure to be there or pretend to be there, but if you don't visit the course site regularly, you won't get much from the course and will find it difficult to get a good grade.

Here are some ideas to keep in mind.
Check the course site regularly.

Even if you don't have specific assignments to complete, check the course site and your email regularly. Your instructor will make announcements, new postings will appear in discussion forums, and other plans may undergo subtle changes. Regular checks will help you remember all that you need to get done.

Plan on spending at least two hours of work time for every credit hour that the course receives.

As a general rule of thumb, a course assumes that you will attend for as many hours are listed in the credit hours, then do homework and prepare in an equivalent number of hours during each week. In an online course, the distinction between attendance and study hours is removed, but the same amount of time is necessary. This is a minimum amount of time. In actual practice, many courses will take many more hours of study.

Your instructor can tell if you are visiting the course site.

There are tools in Blackboard Course Info that allow your instructor to get general statistics about how often you visit the course site. Sometimes, they can even tell you have visited specific parts.

You will have to show your instructor the quality of your participation.

Statistical tools in Blackboard won't let your instructor know if you understand what you read, if you enjoy or dislike aspects of the course, or if you are succeeding as a student. That is up to you. Your assignments, postings, and instructor communication will show the quality of your work.

FINANCIAL AID CERTIFICATION

YOU SHOULD LOGIN TO THE WEB SITE AND READ THE FIRST LECTURE, FIRST CHAPTER, AND TAKE THE FIRST PRACTICE QUIZ (ASSIGNMENT) BY THE CERTIFICATION DATE. THIS QUALIFIES YOU FOR CERTIFICATION. CHECK THE CRITICAL DATES SECTION OF THE WEB SITE AND THE WHAT TO DO LIST FOR THE CERTIFICATION DATE.
ONLINE CLASSROOM POLICIES

Discussion Board responses, emails, and all other correspondence among faculty and students enrolled in this class are expected to conform to the level of conduct that would be expected in a regular classroom. Students should feel free to express disagreement with the instructor and other students but it must be done in a manner which is not verbally abusive, threatening, or harassing. Communication among students is encouraged but must end if one of the parties requests that it be terminated.

Students will not send unsolicited email espousing a cause, religion, or activity to other class participants and will not add other class participants to any listserves or other entity which distributes unwanted email or material.

Violation of these guidelines may result in disciplinary action against the offending student. This action can include termination of the student’s participation in the class and a grade of F.
