D. Choose and apply appropriate finishes which enhance the formal and expressive qualities of each piece of ceramic ware produced;
E. Differentiate between the processes and results of firing techniques;
F. Develop critical thinking in the areas of aesthetics, philosophy and freedom of expression.

COURSE OUTLINE/REQUIREMENTS
COURSE OUTLINE

This course focuses on handbuilding and wheel techniques commonly used throughout the history of ceramics and in particular, the vessels and sculpture of Asian and African ceramics. The class will be shown slides of both Historical and Contemporary ceramics. Demonstrations will be given for each assignment to give an example of what is expected. The objective of this course is for students to obtain basic ceramic skills, research, and to explore historical and contemporary uses of clays as well as expanding one’s understanding of the connection between culture and the ceramic art produced.
Students will complete 4 clay projects (allowing 2 weeks for each) during this class.
