A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Colonial period to the early 20th century. Emphasis is on the long-term, continuous development of American society and government. Excessively late assignments will not be graded. Written assignments must be turned in at the assigned time and date. Additional assignments and projects should be completed on a timely basis. Class participation and attendance can enhance a student's final grade. Final grades will be based upon the following:

- Written Exercise #1: 100 points
- Written Exercise #2: 100 points
- Written Exercise Final: 100 Points
- Discussion Boards: 100 points
- Pop Quizzes: 100 points
- Assignments: 100 points
- Participation: 100 points
- Grade Reports: 100 points
- Final Exam: 100 points

Grade reports are no longer mailed. You may access your grades at the end of the semester with your student identification number when you log in to eConnect.

Course Syllabus

Syllabus

Course Description

The instructor reserves the right to amend this syllabus as necessary.