Description of Graded Work

ASSIGNMENTS/TESTS/QUIZZES: During this semester, students will complete a variety of assessment activities in order to demonstrate an awareness of the course content.

There is no Mid-Term exam and no Final exam. This is a reading-intensive course; the entire textbook will be examined. Students in this course will complete multiple brief quizzes related to the course textbook and multiple writing/discussion assignments.

You will be allowed one test reset for the entire semester. It is up to the student to review the Help & FAQs information on eCampus prior to beginning this course. If you do get locked out or encounter a problem that requires a reset, take the opportunity to contact eCampus tech support to solve the problem and prevent it from happening.
again because you will not get another quiz reset. No test will be reset after its due date. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

Nothing may be turned in after the deadline. No exceptions will be made. Each quiz will close at 6:00PM on the due date. The Museum Paper assignment will be available on the first day of the course until the day it is due. STUDENTS MUST READ THE INSTRUCTIONS FOR EACH TEST AND THE MUSEUM PAPER CAREFULLY. Missed quizzes and assignments will receive a grade of zero.

EVALUATION: Grades are based on the student’s awareness of the course content as demonstrated in assignments and tests. Students should seek assistance from the Academic Skills Center for Writing in the campus library for writing and support.

NOTE: Students should read the chapters associated with a particular unit and review all relevant information posted on eCampus prior to completing each assignment.

Classroom Etiquette

Please treat each other and the instructor with respect. Be aware of the written and/or verbal policies the instructor includes in the syllabus or says in class. As you would wish to be treated, so treat others. In other words, by following the rules outlined below, you will be more successful and less frustrated with your instructor and fellow students (and better prepared for university and/or business life).

Practice open and honest communication. Communicate, politely, with your instructor if you have a problem. Also, nothing can be accomplished if you don’t talk to your instructor at all! Remember the golden rule above: if you treat your instructor with respect, your instructor will treat you with respect. This works for your fellow students, too!

Avoid asking for special treatment without good reason. Requests for special consideration from the instructor (such as late papers, excused absences, etc.) are just that, requests. You are asking the instructor for a favor. Your instructor must be fair to all students and may not grant your request, or may grant it only with adequate documentation/evidence. Be aware of this and respect the instructor’s decision.
