Course Description
This beginning course investigates various media, techniques, and subjects. It explores perceptual and descriptive possibilities and considers drawing as a developmental process as well as an end in itself. (2 Lec., 4 Lab.)

Student Learning Outcomes
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
1. The student will demonstrate knowledge of professional methods and standards of presentation of artwork by, matting and or framing one of their finished artworks from class. For works on canvas or wood panels, the edges would need to be painted and have a wire on the back for hanging.
2. The student will demonstrate a strong range of value in their artwork from both the midterm and final portfolio reviews.
3. Students will participate in verbal and written critique of both their artwork and the artwork of classmates.
4. The student will be more visually aware.
5. The student will be exposed to a wide variety of drawing materials and techniques.
6. The student will become more skilled in the use of various drawing media.
7. The student will learn to visually problem solve and think creatively.
8. The student will use the principles of design and visual elements in all of their artwork.

Description of Graded Work

Midterm Critique and Portfolio Review: During the midsemester, students will be given a list of 10 drawing completed in class. These drawings will be submitted as the Midterm Portfolio. Students will also participate in a class critique in which they will discuss their own work and offer feedback regarding other classmates’ works.

Sketchbook Exercises and Homework: Students will be given two weeks worth of sketchbook exercises at a time. These assignments will be completed in the small sketchbooks at home. Four times throughout the semester, these will be submitted for grading. Inbetween sketchbook exercises, students will complete a small accordion self portrait. Throughout the semester, student will complete and submit 4 accordion self portraits.

Final Critique and Portfolio Review: Towards the end of the semester, students will be given a list of 10 drawing completed in class. These drawings will be submitted as the Final Portfolio. Students will also participate in a class critique in which they will discuss their own work and offer feedback regarding other classmates’ works.

Final Project: Students will create an accordion style artist book with their 4 homework self portraits. Students will be allowed to use mixed media and various techniques to express themselves and create a book that represents who they are. These final projects will be critiqued on the last day of class.

Attendance and Your Final Grade
Students are expected to attend all classes in which they are enrolled. It is the responsibility of the student to consult with the instructor when it is necessary for the student to be absent from the class. Your attendance and participation in class activities will factor into your final grade. Tardy is defined as arriving more than 5 minutes late to class or leaving early without prior agreement with the instructor. Special arrangements in order to avoid tardies due to class conflicts can ONLY be made with the instructor of this class. The instructor will distribute a roll sheet for each class session. It is your responsibility to sign the roll sheet each class session you attend. Students may not sign roll sheets for previous class sessions after the fact. Students may not sign the roll sheet for an absent student. We meet a scheduled 30 times, making each class worth about 3 points each towards a possible 100 Participation Grade, 2 tardies or leaving early = 1 absence.

Late Work Policy
Late work is not accepted without written medical documentation. If there is an emergency, please contact the instructor.

Institutional Policies
Institutional Policies relating to this course can be accessed using the link below. These policies include information about tutoring, Disabilities Services, class drop and repeat options, Title IX, and more.

2D Art Lab Policies

The 2D Studio Lab is restricted to use by only currently enrolled students in Painting, Drawing, and Design Classes who are attending art classes on a regular basis and are in good standing in the classes.

The 2D Studio Lab is available to approved art students to use for required classwork during posted Open Lab hours.

The following rules and regulations must be followed at all times:

1. The "storage room" inside 2D Studio Lab is predominantly used for storage of equipment and supplies. It is intended for instructor use.
2. Student artwork (class work for current semester only) are to be stored in the provided artwork racks.
3. Student portfolios and work are to be stored in class assigned shelves or cabinets.
4. Students must work within sizes that will fit into the storage racks and shelves available in this lab or store larger works at home when not working on them in class.
5. Student supplies should be stored in assigned areas. Materials left out will be disposed of. (Students are encouraged to store their personal materials and supplies in the art lockers on a first-come, first-served basis. Regulations concerning lockers are posted in the locker area.)
6. At the end of the semester, students must remove all personal items and artwork from the lab. NLC will not be responsible for work after the close of the semester unless arrangements have been made with the instructor and the 2D Studio Lab coordinator.
7. Students using the facilities outside of class time must leave the work areas clean and be sure all personal work and supplies are stored away as stated above.
8. Students using the lab may not move or remove anyone else's artwork, supplies, etc.; nor will they rearrange the lab or storage room in any way.
9. All students working independently in the lab must work with the guidelines of the course of which they are enrolled (see class syllabus) and follow all Art Lab policies.
10. Students must follow instructions of the Open Lab assistant concerning the use of the room, storage of materials, and clean-up.

Students who violate these lab rules and regulations will be prohibited from further use of the 2D Art Lab other than while attending regularly scheduled classes.
