The history of the United States is surveyed from the Reconstruction era to the present day. The study includes social, economic, and political aspects of American life. The development of the United States as a world power is followed.
Student Learning Outcomes

1. Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
2. Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
3. Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history

Texas Core Objectives

The College defines essential knowledge and skills that students need to develop during their college experience. These general education competencies parallel the Texas Core Objectives for Student Learning. In this course, the activities you engage in will give you the opportunity to practice two or more of the following core competencies:

1. Critical Thinking Skills - to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
2. Communication Skills - to include effective development, interpretation, and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication
3. Personal Responsibility - to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making
4. Social Responsibility - to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities

Required Course Materials

Note: A student of this institution is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Description of Graded Work

Exams: Exams will consist of multiple choice, matching and short answer questions. They will cover material from the textbook, class lectures, and independent readings.

Article Reviews: Students will read assigned articles and then complete the article review form.

Reading Quizzes: Multiple choice questions in Blackboard. Only available during the dates listed in the course outline. Ten (10) questions per chapter on each quiz.

Written Assignment: A small research paper using both primary and secondary sources. More details found in Blackboard.

Attendance and Your Final Grade

In general, daily class attendance enhances student achievement of an A, B, or C in the course. Students should advise instructors of illness, work, or family situations that may require absence from class.
Late Work Policy
An assignment turned in after the class period upon which it is due is considered late unless the student makes prior arrangements with the professor. If the student is absent on the day the written assignment is due, the assignment must still be submitted through Blackboard. For each day they assignment is late for an excused reason, the grade will drop by one letter grade.

Other Course Policies

Electronic Devices
Inasmuch as electronic devices pose serious risk to academic integrity, and because mobile phones are disruptive to the learning environment, the instructor reserves the right to control the use of all electronic devices in class. Students who disrupt the class with their electronic device may be asked to leave the class and are responsible for any work missed. Their dismissal will be counted as an absence. Under no circumstance will students turn on electronic devices or keep them on during tests or quizzes. Students who send/receive text messages during an exam, engage in any kind of communication activity which threatens the integrity of the test environment, or photograph on electronic devices test materials or other materials the instructor deems inappropriate for copy are subject to failure in the course.

All headphones/earbuds must be removed and put away during class time.

Exams
All exams must be taken on the scheduled exam day. A missed exam must be excused by the professor to be made up. Any student arriving 10 minutes late to class will not be allowed to take an exam. Once an exam is started, students may not leave the classroom for any reason until they finished the exam and turn it in.
