Description of Graded Work

Exams (500 points)

There will be five exams covering textbook modules. Each exam will be taken online. All tests are located in the exam section of eCampus. You will have two attempts per exam with the highest-grade counting. All students who miss an exam will be able to take one make-up during the week of April 6th. There will be only one attempt for the make-up. Academic dishonesty policies will be strictly enforced.

Research Activity (100 points)

During the course of the class, there will be one case study research activity focused on a specific problem.

Supplemental Readings (80 points)

In the reading supplements tab, you will find a folder for each topic that we will be studying in this course. To aid in your better understanding of these areas or to explore your specific interests more on a topic, you are to select the following number of readings by the assigned due date.

1 article  Due date February 19
1 article  Due date March 11
1 article  Due date April 8
1 article  Due date April 29

You are to select an article of interest and answer the short essay questions listed as “Reading Supplement Unit 1 Essay 1”, etc. The essays are worth 1 – 6 points with maximum points of 20 points. This should be a highly interesting activity since you select the article you want to read.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO) Quiz (40 points)

Though not a full exam, the student learning outcomes quiz will be completed at the end of the semester. Due by May 11.

Attendance and Your Final Grade

Class Participation (125 points)

Class participation will be an objective grade based on students' attendance and ability to answer questions during class. Interactive student response cards will be utilized during class to record answers to questions presented during class. Students who repeatedly arrive late to class and/or leave before class ends will lose points from the class participation grade.

Optional Extra Credit (40 points)

Maximum of 40 extra-credit points can be earned by completing material in extra-credit handouts. In each unit there are articles attached to various topics. Select a topic and open it up and a series of articles will appear. Click the article you want to read. The article will appear. Read the article and at the end of the article there is a “Quiz”, which reveals a set of four questions to answer regarding the article. An announcement will appear asking you if you ready to begin the test. Select begin and the questions will appear. Make sure you click on the submit button as you finalize your answers. Your responses will be graded and the point total will appear in the grade center. No points beyond 40 will be applied to your final grade. Due date May 4.

Late Work Policy

Late work will not be accepted or graded. Infrequent exceptions may be granted, at the instructor’s sole discretion, in the event of documented emergencies or documented extenuating circumstances such as unplanned medical treatment or incarceration. All doctors’ notes must be signed by the doctor on official letterhead/prescription pad. Notes that are not dated, signed, or verifiable will not be accepted. It is the students’ responsibility to contact the instructor 24 hours prior to the assignment due date to arrange a make-up.

Other Course Policies

Certification

You must attend and participate in your course in order to receive federal financial aid. Your instructor is required by law to validate your attendance in your on-campus or online course in order for you to receive financial aid. You must participate in an academic related activity pertaining to the course but not limited to the following examples: participating in a lecture class activity; submitting an academic assignment; taking an exam; completing an interactive video; participating in computer-assisted instruction; attending a study group assigned by the instructor; or participating in an online discussion board about academic matters relating to the course.

For this course, you must have attended at least one class meeting prior to (before) the certification date. Failure to attend class prior to the stated date will prevent you from being certified and will affect your financial aid.

Electronics Policy

Inappropriate use of electronics (cell phones, tablets etc.) during class sessions—including text messages, social media, games, etc.—will result in the student being dismissed for the remainder of that day's class session without credit. If an electronic device is in a student's hand, desk or other visible area during an exam, it will be assumed that the student is cheating.

Technology

Assignments are DUE as outlined in the course calendar. Waiting until the last minute can be problematic as issues may arise with computers; eCampus is a class feature. Experiencing technological difficulties, or not having access to a computer are not acceptable reasons for missing assignment deadlines. Students should plan in advance to complete assignments—the Brookhaven College Library and local public libraries are good resources—please use them.

IMPORTANT: The reading supplement assignments, exams, and any other formal writing assignments will be submitted via eCampus and checked for plagiarism through SafeAssign.

Academic Honesty Statement

Scholastic dishonesty is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. As a college student, you are considered a responsible adult. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on tests, plagiarism and collusion. Cheating includes copying from another student’s test or homework paper, using materials not authorized, collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test, knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, or soliciting the contents of an un-administered test, and substituting for another person to take a test. Plagiarism is the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another’s work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one’s own written work. Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements.

Academic dishonesty is a serious offense in college. You can be given a failing grade on an assignment or test, can be failed for the class, or you can even be suspended from college.

Classroom Etiquette

This course may cover sensitive material; therefore, please make every effort to respect others. Disagreements are allowed and are to be expected but should focus on ideas rather than the individual who expresses them. Students are encouraged to contribute their perspectives and insights to class discussions; however, offensive, abusive or threatening language and remarks related to racial and ethnic background, sexual orientation, gender, gender presentation, religious groups, and other ascribed statuses will not be tolerated.

Signs of disrespect that will not be tolerated include, but are not limited to, having background conversations while others are talking, packing up early while others are talking or asking questions, sleeping, listening to music, and working on material for other classes. Inappropriate behavior may result in the student being directed to leave the classroom, course failure, and/or being referred to the Dean.

Email Etiquette

Emails are a constant in the academic and professional worlds. Therefore, it is important that you practice proper email etiquette at all times. I value your time and my own. Most emails will receive a response within 24 hours. Therefore, if you have a time sensitive question, you will not want to procrastinate in contacting me. With that said, when emailing me, you are expected to do the following to assure the most efficient response time:

- All subject lines for this class should include your name and the course level and section, e.g. First Name Last Name PSYC 2301-23201
- Emails concerning course grades will not be responded to unless the student has emailed the instructor from a DCCCD student Outlook account.

A Note on Emails: Emails not adhering to the email expectations for this course may be returned with the request to meet expectations before a response is given. Emails not including a subject line may not be responded to or opened due to virus and spam concerns. Following instructions the first time will result in the student receiving a faster response. 😊
