

Curriculum Vitae

Ambronita Rose Douzart, Ph.D.
Richland College
12800 Abrams Rd
Dallas, TX 75243
972-238-6990
adouzart@dcccd.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D., University of Texas at Dallas, Humanities/History of Ideas
PhD., Louisiana Baptist University, Counseling and Psychology
M.A., Louisiana State University in Shreveport, Liberal Arts
B.A., Fisk University, Political Science

DCCCD TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Richland College, DCCCD, Dallas, Texas 2006-present (Full-time in 2008)
Lead Faculty/Instructor, History

Eastfield College, DCCCD, Dallas, Texas 2006
Instructor, History

BOOK AND ARTICLE PUBLICATIONS

Without Reservations: The Last Indian Raids in Texas." in U.S. A Narrative History Special Texas Edition volume 2 since 1865, New York, NY: McGraw Hill Publishers, 2015.

"Without Reservations: The Last Indian Raids in Texas." in U.S. A Narrative History Special Texas Edition volume 2 since 1865, New York, NY: McGraw Hill Publishers, 2012.

"A Historical Perspective on slavery in the Choctaw Nation by Choctaw Freedmen." Retrospect History Journal (May 2007) Online series.

"Their Defense on Slavery: Eighteenth-Century Proslavery Writers." The Journal of Intercultural Disciplines. Monograph Series (September 2006) Online.

"The Changing Image of Lincoln among African Americans." The Journal of Ideology. Volume 23: Number 3 (Winter 2000).

I certify that statements made by me in this vitae are true, complete, and correct.