

Curriculum Vitae

Anna Birukoff

Richland College
12800 Abrams Rd.
Dallas, TX 75243
972.761.6744
annabirukoff@dcccd.edu

Education:

Perm State Technical University, Perm, Russia.

M.A. in Linguistics and Education

Graduate Certificate. Completed course work in “Methodology of Teaching Russian as a Foreign Language”, Perm State Technical University, Perm, Russia.

Other Accomplishments

2008: Co-authored textbook to accompany DVDs, “Mr. Berger’s Business Tour (from Brazil to Japan)” for 3rd and 4th year students majoring in English Interpretation.

2008 – 2016: Has written several articles for publication in professional education journals, including:

- “The Use of Fictional Literature in Russian as a Foreign Language Class in a Non-Native Speaking Environment: between denotation and language,” XIII Congress of MAPRYAL “Russian Language and Literature in World Cultural Space”. September 2015, Granada, Spain.
- “Relevant techniques of formation of speech (communicative) competences in teaching Russian as a foreign language in a non-native speaking environment”, I International Conference “ Russian Language in Bilingual Discourse”. Perm, June 2014
- “ Modeling of communicative situations in teaching Russian s a foreign language in a non-native speaking environment,” Philological studies. Questions of theory and practice. Tambov: Gramota #4, 2014
- “ From speech to language: formation of socio-cultural picture of the world in teaching Russian as a foreign language”, Philological studies. Questions of theory and practice. Tambov: Gramota #9, 2013

I certify that statements made by me in this vitae are true, complete and correct.