

Curriculum Vitae

Barbara Wall Stallings

Richland College

12800 Abrams Rd.

Dallas, Tx. 75243

972-238-6140 972-238-6250

Bws8401@dccc.edu

Education

The University of Texas at Dallas, Dallas, TX

Master of Arts in Humanities

Major field: History of Ideas. Concentration in Philosophy.

Minor field: Studies in Literature

Master's Thesis. "The Rawlsian Self" Thesis Committee:

Committee: Co-Chairs : Dr Victor Worsfold, Philosophy , History of Ideas, Dr. Alexander Argyros, Studies in Literature, Dr David Channell, History of Ideas.

Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Tx

Bachelor of Arts

Major : Government.; Minor: Philosophy; Minor : Literature

Graduate Studies: 24 hours in Philosophy

Advisor: W.B. Mahan, PhD

Secondary Teaching Certificate in History and Government

Related educational activities:

Debate Team, Drama society

Comparative Literature Honor Society. ,

Teaching Experience

Instructor, Richland College, Dallas county Community college District, 1974 to present. ,

Courses taught:PHIL 2303: Logic; PHIL 1301: Introduction to Philosophy, PHIL 2306: Ethics

On line courses since 1996: Ethics, Introduction to Philosophy, Logic.

Course development: Aesthetics and Literary Criticism; Introduction to Philosophy, Ethics, On line Logic

Machette Foundation Grant: Teaching Philosophy for Children at Richardson Independent School District magnet school and at Richland college.

Instructor, Spring Creek Campus, Collin County Community College District, 1988 - 1995

Courses taught: Introduction to Philosophy, Applied Ethics, Social and Political Philosophy, Logic.

Publications and Papers

The Rawlsian Self , 2001

Guest Instructor in RISD talented and gifted program: Philosophy for Children

Research Interest

Post modern criticism of John Rawls' s Theory and related writings.