

Curriculum Vitae

Brian McClung
Brookhaven College
3939 Valley View Lane
Farmers Branch, Dallas, TX 75244-4997
bmcllung@dcccd.edu

Education

University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington, TX
Graduate Certificate in Teaching English as a Second Language (TESOL)

University of California at Berkeley, Berkeley, CA
Doctoral studies in comparative literature—Italian (major literature), English and French (minor literatures)
Advanced to candidacy but did not complete dissertation or receive PhD.

University of California at Berkeley, Berkeley, CA
M.A. in Comparative Literature—Italian (major literature), English (minor literature)

Wesleyan University, Middletown, CT
B.A. in Letters—with emphasis in Italian literature

Teaching Experience

Brookhaven College, Farmers Branch, Texas, August 2003 - present
Full-Time Faculty
ESOL writing and reading; Italian language

North Lake College, Irving, Texas, October 2000 to August 2003
Instructional Specialist III
ESOL writing, listening and speaking, reading, integrated skills, conversation, accent reduction, TOEFL preparation; Italian language

North Lake College, Irving, Texas, August 1997 to October 2000
Adjunct Faculty
ESOL writing, listening and speaking, reading, integrated skills, conversation, TOEFL preparation; Italian language

Scuola Berlitz, Bologna, Italy, October 1994 – May 1996
Teacher
English language classes

University of California at Berkeley, Berkeley, CA, August 1987 – May 1993
Graduate Student Instructor
Italian language; Freshman Composition / Introduction to Comparative Literature