

CHERRENDER BROWN, M. A
Cherrender.Brown@yahoo.com

Profile: Established reputation as a detailed oriented professional with proven experience in mental health and customer service. Skilled in mortgage banking, psychological assessment and treatment with the ability to multi task and manage changing priorities. Strengths include analytical, organizational, listening and documentation skills.

Education: Spring 2002 Paul Quinn College Dallas, Texas
Degree, Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management
May 2007 Graduate Masters in Counseling from Prairie View A & M
Chi Sigma Iota Honors Counseling 2007
Currently enrolled at Walden University, Concentration Health Psychology,
Doctorate Degree

Employment Highlights:

Eastfield College Mesquite, Texas January 2010- Present
Human Development Adjunct Instructor/EDUC-Psych 1300

Provide motivation to adult learners to become successful college students
Integrate psychological theories to learning framework coursework
Keep an upbeat setting for students in a positive environment
Evaluate fairly and offer constructive feedback

Dallas MetroCare Dallas, Texas November 2007- August 2010
Qualified Mental Health Professional/Treatment and Assessment

Provides psychosocial/rehabilitative service to persons with mental illness and substance abuse
Services include assessment, development and measurable treatment goal and objectives, referral, linkage, advocacy, monitoring, crisis intervention and continuity of care.
Provide training to new caseworkers and handle management responsibilities while managers are absent
Provide individual, marriage, and family counseling
Knowledge of mental illness, symptomatology, medications and treatment.
Effectively manage a large (330) caseload of consumers with varying needs
Provide group life skill teaching in daily living, substance abuse and living with schizophrenia
Provides initial assessment to intakes
Managerial recognition for meeting and exceeding bench (110%) in third week of employment.