

Curriculum Vitae

Christopher Paul Dugdale
4849 West Illinois Avenue
Dallas, TX 75211
214-860-8671
cdugdale@dcccd.edu

Education

University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington, TX
Master of Arts in History in 2010

University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington, TX
Master of Education in 1999

University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington, TX
Bachelor's Degree in History in 1997

Teaching Experience

Mountain View College, Dallas, TX August 2007 to present
Currently Teaching HIST 1301: Early America to 1876 and HIST 1302: 1876 to the present.

Duncanville High School, Duncanville, TX August 2004 to present
Currently teaching Dual Enrollment United States History through Mountain View, Academic United States History, and Law Studies. Developed additional teaching materials to supplement curriculum for United States History and World History Courses. Developed Law Studies program for aspiring Lawyers, and Police Personnel. Currently developing course on World Wars of the Twentieth Century.

Burleson High School, Burleson, TX August 1999 to May 2001
Taught Spanish I and II. Developed additional teaching materials to supplement curriculum. Developed Foreign Language Department web-site. Lead Sponsor for Spanish Club.

Rio Vista Middle School, Rio Vista, TX August 1997 to May 1999
Concurrently created and taught four different levels of Spanish Curriculum. Assistant to the Bilingual Director. Assistant to Migrant Worker Program Director. Trained and assisted in ESL Strategies. Created and was lead sponsor for Spanish Club.

Publications and Papers:

Dallas Branch of the NAACP after World War II, January 30, 2010
Guest Speaker at the 11th Annual Legacies Dallas History Conference, Dallas, TX