

Christopher L. Manes
12800 Abrams Rd
ACCESS Office A110
Dallas TX 75243
972-238-6140

Education

University of Texas at Dallas, PhD Candidate, Studies in Literature, ABD	Richardson, TX
University of Louisiana at Lafayette, M.A. English	Lafayette, La
University of Louisiana at Lafayette, BA English and History	Lafayette, La

Employment History

Richland College, Dallas, TX, Adjunct History and English Instructor	2007-present
Richland Collegiate High School, Dallas, TX, Capstone Coordinator, Curriculum Developer, and Instructor	2008-present
Collin County Community College, Frisco, TX, Adjunct English Instructor	2007-present
El Centro College, Dallas, TX Adjunct English Instructor	2006-2007
University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson, TX TA, Instructor on Record for Rhetoric Classes and Literary Analysis	2003-2007
University of Louisiana at Lafayette, Lafayette, La TA, Instructor on Record for English 101 and 102	2002-2003
University of Louisiana at Lafayette, Lafayette, La TA, Media Center Video Conference Proctor for Distance Learning Courses and Community Meetings	2001-2002

Presentations and Publications

Student Success Conference, Co-Presenter on Teaching in Learning Communities Mountain View College (2010)

Word Space—Guest Reader (Poet) coordinated by Simone Robert (2005)

Carville: Remembering Leprosy in America (Book by Marcia Gaudet)—excerpts of my poetry are discussed in the last chapter of Gaudet's book (2004)

“From Public Health Policy to Personal Narrative” (Poem) Southwestern Review (2003)

“Regarding Carville: The Letters of Norbert and Edmond Landry” (Scholarly Article) Louisiana History (2003)

The Benefits of Distance Learning in the History Classroom—presentation to the Louisiana Historical Association's Annual Conference at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette (2002)

“Regardez” (Poetry Chapbook) Funded by a grant obtained from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette Information and Technology Department (2001)