

Curriculum Vitae

GARY G. JOHN Richland College

Office: L242 Phone: 972-238-6118
garyjohn@dcccd.edu

12800 Abrams Road
Dallas, TX 75243

Education:

ED.D. in Counseling and Higher Education 1972
Texas A & M Commerce, TX

M.A. in Counseling and Student Personnel Work 1968
Austin College, Sherman, TX

B.A. in History and Education 1965
Austin College, Sherman, TX

Teaching Experience:

Richland College, Dallas, TX August 1972-Present
Professor for Human Development and Education

Paris Junior College, Paris, TX August 1960-1970
Instructor and Director of Orientation Program

Central Virginia Community College, Lynchburg, VA August 1968-69
Instructor and Director of Orientation Program

Piner Junior High, Sherman, TX August 1966-67
7th grade Language Arts and Social Studies

Certificates, Certifications & Other Qualifications:

- Authorized by Brain Technologies to conduct workshops and seminars using their instruments: Brainmap™, mCircle™, Mindmapper6™, and PathPrimer™.
- Certified by Dr. David K. Reynolds in Constructive Living--A Japanese life way that includes Morita and Naikan Psychotherapies
- Outstanding Teacher and Minnie Stevens Piper Nominee from Counseling and Student Services Division (1990-91, 1986-87, and 1979-80). Richland nominee to district in 1986-87.
- Received NISOD Excellence in Teaching Medallion, University of Texas, Austin, Texas, 1991.
- Distinguished Alumni Award, East Texas State University Department of Counseling and Guidance, Commerce, Texas, 1993 (now Texas A & M University Commerce).
- Received Jean Sharon Griffith Excellence in Student Leadership Award for Richland & DCCCD 2013-2014.

Relevant Work Experience:

Argosy University, Dallas, Texas August 2008-2011
Adjunct graduate Professor in Counseling

I certify that statements made by me in this vitae are true, complete and correct.