

Curriculum Vitae

Isabel Halsey
Brookhaven College, 3939 Valley View Lane, Farmers Branch, TX 75244
ihalsey@dccc.edu

Education

Master of Science in Science Education TWU, Denton TX

Biology Certification UTA, Arlington TX

BA Psychology, UTA, Arlington TX

Certifications

Master Naturalist- North Dallas Chapter

Master Composter and Master Composter Trainer

Teaching Experience

Grand Prairie ISD, Grand Prairie, TX {1978-to Present}
Science Teacher: Biology, Pre AP Biology, AP Environmental Science, Environmental Systems, Aquatic Science, Integrated Physics and Chemistry

Northlake College and Brookhaven College {2003-to present}
Adjunct faculty at DCCCD in Biology

Professional and Volunteer Activities

Volunteer with Master Naturalist program - 2009 to present

Teach all or part of the Master Composter curriculum for Grand Prairie and Irving citizens - 1997 to present

Member of TAAE -Texas Association for Environmental Education - 1989 to present
Attend yearly conference and present workshops in soil, composting, recycling, Texas fossils

Helped implement and volunteer at Outdoor Natural Science Education Center at Kirby Creek Park in Grand Prairie – 1995 to present

Awards

1999 - Volunteer Monitor of the Year- from Texas Watch program for watershed monitoring of Kirby Creek in Grand Prairie

1997 - Keep Texas Beautiful, Ruthe Jackson Youth Leadership Award