

Curriculum Vitae

James W. Stover
Office 972-238-6282
jstover@dccd.edu

Richland College
12800 Abrams Road
Dallas, TX 75243

Education

Master of Fine Arts, Texas Woman's University - Denton, TX

Master of Arts, Columbia University – New York, NY

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Baylor University – Waco, TX

Teaching Experience

Richland College, Dallas, TX 1972 – present
Full-Time Faculty. Courses taught include Computer Illustration, 2D Design, 3D Design, Painting, Sculpture and Art Appreciation (on campus and online).

El Centro College, Dallas, TX 1966 – 1972
Full-Time Faculty. Courses taught included Drawing, Figure Drawing, 2D Design, 3D Design, Painting, Sculpture and Art Appreciation.

Relevant Work Experience

Stover was part of the original art faculty at El Centro College in 1966 which was the first of seven colleges created by Dallas County Community College District. Stover helped start the art program at Richland College in 1972 when the college originally opened its doors and has remained a faculty member there ever since.

Widely respected as a juror and lecturer, Stover has exhibited artworks in numerous galleries and one-man shows. Stover's art is found in many private and corporate collections throughout the country.

For 30 years, Stover worked with leading designers in Dallas creating commissions for his clients including original illustrations, graphic works, paintings and sculptures.

Stover's works and personal papers are documented in the Smithsonian Institution Archives of American Art.

I certify that statements made by me in this vitae are true, complete and correct.