

Curriculum Vitae

Jonathon C. York
Mountain View College
4849 W. Illinois Ave
Dallas, TX 75211
(214)860-3664
jyork@dcccd.edu

Education

University of Dallas—Braniff Graduate School of Liberal Arts, Irving, TX M.A. in Politics (1999)

University of Dallas—Constantin College of Liberal Arts, Irving, TX B.A. in Politics (1994)

Teaching Experience

Mountain View College, Dallas, TX August 2005 – (current)
Professor of Government. Government 2304, 2305, and 2306.

North Lake College, Irving, TX – August 2003 – May 2005
Visiting Scholar in Government.

North Lake College, Irving, TX – August 2001 – May 2003
Adjunct Instructor in Government and Developmental Writing

Tarrant County College, Northwest Campus – January 2001 – May 2003
Adjunct Instructor—Government 2305 (US Government) and Government 2306 (Texas State & Local Government)

Publications and Papers

Honoring The Circle. Part One, Chapter 4, forthcoming December 2017, University of New Mexico Press. Chapter co-author with Donald Grinde and Stephen Sachs on the Impact of indigenous American thought on Western Political Theory and Philosophy.

“Liberty, Equality Order: Three Pillars of American Politics,” September 2004. Paper submitted to the American Political Science Association Annual Conference, Chicago IL. The LEO Test, 2004-2007. Online journal documenting research into ideological preference. <http://theleotest.typepad.com>

Donklephant, 2005. Various articles submitted connected to LEO Test research.

Perspectives on Despotism: Reflections of Liberty in Montesquieu’s Spirit of the Laws, 1999. M.A. Thesis, Braniff Graduate School of Liberal Arts, Irving, TX.