

Curriculum Vitae
Joyce A. Swegle, PhD, RN
301 North Market, Dallas Texas
972-273-3210
jswegle@dcccd.edu

Education

Texas Woman's University, Denton, Texas

PhD Nursing

Dissertation: The essence of nurses' lived experience of empathy in nurse-patient interactions.

Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee

MSN, Nursing

Central Missouri State University

BS Rehab-Psychology

Teaching Experience

El Centro College

Professor, Nursing, 2009 – present Full-time, 2008 –2009 Adjunct part time

Provide clinical and classroom instruction for fourth level medical-surgical nursing.

Collin County Community College, McKinney Texas

Professor Nursing, 2002-2009 Full-time; Adjunct 1995

Didactic and clinical instruction in medical-surgical nursing at freshman and sophomore levels. Dickinson Endowed Nursing Faculty Chair 2007- 2009.

Excelsior College of Nursing, Albany, New York

Adjunct Faculty 2004-present; 1995-2000

Administer clinical examination for the external degree program

St. Paul Medical Center, Dallas, Texas

Nurse Educator/Enterostomal Therapy Nurse. 1997 - 1999

Facilitated nursing orientation. Developed critical care internship with emphasis in renal and cardiac programs. Developed medical surgical internship. Provided ongoing continuing education for assigned units. Clinical responsibility for patients with wounds, continent diversions and ostomies.

Osteopathic Medical Center of Texas, Fort Worth, Texas

Vice President of Quality and Staff Development, 1992-1995

Developed and implemented an integrated hospital wide TQM program. Designed and taught a TQM facilitator train the trainer course. Satisfied leadership needs for skill training. Designed a hospital wide staff development department. Created and implements educational programs for critical care internship, nurse extern and graduate nurse internship programs. Hired, trained, and developed education staff

Funded Adjunct Faculty

Presbyterian Hospital Dallas, 1990-1992

Coordinated off campus graduate nursing program in conjunction with Texas Woman's University. Satisfied professional nurses needs for accessible graduate nursing programs. Taught graduate nursing theory and nursing research courses. Advised students.

KCK Community College Kansas City, Kansas,

Professor Nursing 1981 –1985 Full time

Lead teacher, medical-surgical nursing at the sophomore level

Publications

Swegle, J. & Personett, R. (1995). Victimization of children and adolescents. In B. Johnson (Ed.). Child - Adolescent Family Psychiatric Nursing. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott.

Swegle, J. & Personett, R. (1995). Behavioral Therapy. In B. Johnson (Ed.). Child Adolescent Family Psychiatric Nursing. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott.

Unpublished Research

Swegle, J.A. (2009). Evaluating learning outcomes: The use of problem-based learning methodology in an associate degree-nursing program.