

Curriculum Vitae

Lehman Marks
Richland College
12800 Abrams Road
Dallas, TX 75243
972.238.6140
Lem8402@dcccd.edu

Education

University of Texas, Austin, Texas
Doctors of Jurisprudence

American Public University
Graduate Study in Political Science

University of North Texas
Graduate Study in Anthropology

Tulane University
Bachelor of Science in Chemistry and Zoology

Teaching Experience

Dallas County Community Colleges - 1978-Present
Instructor – Government 2301, 2302

University of Texas, Dallas - 1990
Guest Lecturer in Political Science

Texas Wesleyan School of Law – 1985-87
Constitutional Law / Family Law

St. Edwards University [Austin] – 1976-78
Instructor – Political Science

Texas State University – 1972-76
Graduate Law Program / Undergraduate Government

LBJ School of Public Affairs – 1969-72
Guest Lecturer – Legislative Law

Professional Experience in Government

- National Lobbyist for Mobil Oil / Montgomery Ward / Community Colleges
- Assistant to the Lieutenant Governor of Texas [Hon. Preston Smith]
- Assistant to the Secretary of State of Texas [Hon. Martin Dies]
- Assistant Attorney General of Texas [Hon. Crawford Martin]
- Executive Director State Licensing Agency
- Executive Director of State Research Organization
- Consultant on Texas Legislation:
  - Regional Council of Government Legislation
  - Open Meetings / Open Records Legislation
- Consultant to the 1974 Texas Constitutional Convention
- Campaign Consultant for multiple elections in Texas
- Executive Director of The Texas Legislature for DCCCD

Publications and Papers

- Texas-in-Action Monthly Journal, Editor [1969-1976]
  - Political Analysis of Texas State Government and the Texas Legislature
- Texas-in-Action Daily [1969-1975]
  - Analysis of legislation pending in the Texas Legislature
  - Daily Updates on the status of legislation pending in the Texas Legislature
- Preliminary “How-To” document for Texas Justices of the Peace
- Digital Text for Government 2301 / 2302