

Martin Antonio Guerra

4849 W Illinois Ave
Dallas, TX 75211
214-860-8577
mguerra@dcccd.edu

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Mountain View College

Professor of ESOL

Dallas, Texas

August 1996 - Present

Teach various levels of ESOL Credit classes including Writing, Grammar, Listening and Speaking; assist Division Dean as the ESOL lead instructor in supervising adjunct ESOL instructors; build class schedules and curriculum for ESOL Credit program; recommend course offerings and materials to Continuing Education Program Director; evaluate and order ESOL textbooks; review and recommend computer aided learning software; help coordinate and grade MVC ESOL Writing Exit Exam essays; serve on various District and campus committees;

ESL Advisor / Instructional Associate / Adjunct August 1992 - 1996

Assessed, advised and taught a diverse ESL population for both Credit and Continuing Education programs; administered Continuing Education placement test for students on and off campus; tutored drop-in students in the Learning Skills Center;

St. Mary of Carmel School

Language Arts Teacher

Dallas, Texas

August 1988 - January 1989

Taught Reading and Writing to 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th graders and served as Religion and Homeroom teacher for 8th grade.

EDUCATION

Del Mar College

Corpus Christi, Texas

August 1982 - May 1984

Associate in Liberal Arts
Member of Phi Theta Kappa

University of Dallas

Constantin College of Liberal Arts
Irving, Texas

August 1984 - May 1986

Bachelor of Arts
English

University of Dallas

Braniff Graduate School of Liberal Arts
Irving, Texas

January 1987 - May 2005

Master of Humanities

University of Saint Thomas

Graduate School of Theology
Houston, Texas

August 1989 - December 1990

Graduate Work in Theology

University of Texas at Dallas

Graduate School of Arts & Humanities
Richardson, Texas

August 1992 - 1999

Graduate Work in Linguistics