

MICHAEL BUEHL
El Centro Community College
701 Elm Street R623
Dallas, Texas 75202
214-860-2392
mbuhl@cccd.edu

EDUCATION

Dalarna University

Sweden, September 2005

- Masters Degree in European Political Sociology,
- Thesis: "Music from Below: Why 1960's rock music found political resonance while hip hop failed three decades later?"
- Committee: Steven Saxonberg (chair), Philipp Kuntz, Roger Melin.
- Specialization: Political Sociology

University of North Texas

- Bachelor of Arts.
- Political Science and Sociology

TX, Denton May-2003

University Erlangen Nuremberg

- Free Mover
- Political Science and Sociology

Germany, February 2001

TEACHING EXPERIENCE AND DEVELOPMENT

Adjunct Instructor

Introductory Sociology, Soci 1301, El Centro Community College, August 2009 to Present.

Instructor (full responsibility)

"Introduction to Sociology," Collin College, Since Fall 2006. 1301-level course, 45-65 students.
"Contemporary Social Problems", Collin College, Since Fall 2006. 1301-level course, 25 students in each of two sections. Responsibilities included designing and leading weekly lectures, selecting exam questions, keeping office hours, maintaining a WebCT account for handouts and assignment posts, writing letters of recommendation for former students upon request.

Teaching Assistant

Teaching Assistant for "Why Revolt?" class, Dalarna University (Steven Saxonberg, Instructor), Fall 2005.

Responsibilities included designing and leading a weekly study section, selecting exam material, keeping office hours for professor.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Stratification and Inequality, Welfare State and Welfare Attitudes, Political Culture, Underground Hip Hop Music, Gender, Urban Sociology, Risk and uncertainty

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Workshop , “Discourse, Democracy, Hegemony – Resume and Future Prospects of the Political Theory of Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Moufee” held at the Center for Social Policy Research and Institute of Political Science , University of Bremen ,Germany , 9-10 Dec. 2005

Workshop, "Radical Transformation and insignificance of the Performance-Principle through the development of work in the age of automation", held at Institut for Social Research, University of Frankfurt-Germany, 15 July 2005.

Workshop , “Advanced Interview Techniques”, Supervised by: Dr. Judith Narrow, held at Dalarna University, Falun, Sweden, March 2005.

Co-Organizer (together with Dr. Reban) with University Public Forum :
Invited Honorary Guest – German Parliament Member Hans-Ulrich Klose (SPD) who served as the chairman of the German-American Parliamentary Group since January of 2003. Topic "A Perspective on Transatlantic Affairs: A View from Berlin," . Denton, Texas. October, 2003.

Teaching Development

Semester-long Effective College Teaching course taught by the Dean of Humanities division, Collin College, Spring 2007.

All-day Teaching Development Workshop, Collin College, Fall 2007, Spring 2008.

International Student Tutor for First-Year Writing Students, University Erlangen- Nuremberg, 2001-2002.

Tutoring on writing structure, articulation of ideas, grammar, and spelling. Responsibilities included weekly one-hour individual meetings with first-year international students needing special assistance with their writing skills, especially non-native German speakers and English majors.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Sociological Association

LANGUAGES

English (Fluent)/ German (Fluent)