

Curriculum Vitae

Michael G. Noble
Eastfield College
3737 Motley Dr.
Mesquite, TX 75150
(972) 860-7146 office
(214) 317-6647 cell
michaelnoble@dcccd.edu

Education

Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX
Doctor of Liberal Studies – in progress
Field of Study – American Public Support and Warfare

University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson, TX
M.A. History – 3.9 GPA
Field of Study – Nazi Germany and the Holocaust

University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson, TX
B.A. Historical Studies (Cum Laude)

Areas of Concentration

Nazi Germany and the Holocaust, Ancient and Medieval Europe, Modern Europe (1914 – Present), Colonial America, Cold War America, American Slavery

Teaching Experience

Eastfield College- Mesquite, TX, 08/2011 to Present
Full-Time Faculty, History Department

Eastfield College-Mesquite, TX, 08/2009 to 08/2011
Adjunct Professor- HIST 1301 and HIST 1302

Collin College, Spring Creek Campus-Plano, TX, 01/2010 to 08/2011
Associate Faculty-HIST 1301 and 1302

University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson, TX, 08/2008 to 06/2009
Teaching Assistant- HIST 1301 and HIST 1302

Campus Involvement

Lead Advisor- Phi Theta Kappa, 08/2010 - Present
Campus Representative- Texas Community College Teachers Association
Chair – Honors Program Advisory Board

Certifications

University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson, TX
Certificate in Holocaust Education
School of Arts and Humanities-08/2009

Awards

Nominated – Excellence in Teaching Award, 2014

Winner-Excellence in Teaching Award 2010
Eastfield College, Mesquite Texas

Victor Worsford Award for Outstanding Teaching Assistant-Nominated
University of Texas at Dallas, 08/2009

Professional Organizations

American Historical Association

World History Association

NISOD

Texas Community College Teachers Association – Campus Representative